IN THE MATTER OF RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE PLEADING AND DOCUMENT IRREGULARITIES	Docket No F-238-11 Re Administrative Order 01-2010 CERTIFICATION OF GLENN E. MITCHELL

GLENN E. MITCHELL hereby certifies as follows

1. I submit this certification in connection with the response of The Bank of New York Mellon and its affiliate The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N A to the Supplemental Administrative Order 01-2010 Directing Submission of Information from Residential Mortgage Foreclosure Plaintiffs Concerning Their Document Execution Practices, dated January 31, 2011

2 I am a Vice President in the Global Corporate Trust unit of The Bank of New York Mellon My responsibilities include aspects of our residential mortgage backed securities ("MBS") business where The Bank of New York Mellon is trustee for residential mortgage backed securities ("MBS") securitizations I have knowledge of the facts set forth herein.

3 On rare occasions the servicer for a loan for which we are MBS trustee (or on some occasions a court hearing a foreclosure case) requests that the trustee itself furnish someone to sign an affidavit, verify interrogatory answers, and/or furnish deposition or trial testimony These requests are focused on the securitization structure and sometimes the place of the loan in the structure, rather than on the performance of a particular loan. In other words, we do not provide information on whether or when a loan is delinquent or the amount due thereon.

4 If we receive such a request, the determination as to how to respond is made by The Bank of New York Mellon's Legal Division. If it is determined that participation by the trustee is warranted, I, or less frequently, one of my colleagues review the key securitization documents, the note, and any other documents and information necessary, such as pleadings from the court file. If we are requested to sign an affidavit or interrogatory verification we review the text of it with an attorney in our legal division On some occasions we consult with our own outside litigation counsel in addition to foreclosure counsel appointed by the servicer. I determine that the facts stated in any document I sign are correct before signing, and it is the practice at The Bank of New York Mellon for all such witnesses to do so

5. If we are called upon to testify, again, I review the relevant documents described above and consult with a litigation attorney from The Bank of New York Mellon's Legal Division and, sometimes, with outside counsel in addition to the foreclosure counsel engaged by the servicer Again, this is the practice at The Bank of New York Mellon for all such witnesses.

6. During 2010, I signed approximately four affidavits in connection with foreclosure cases, and testified in trials or depositions approximately five times

7. As is apparent from the above, we do not engage in mass production of any documents associated with foreclosure cases. In the rare circumstances where the trustee is called upon to and does participate, the participation, whether by affidavit or testimony, is specifically reviewed with respect to the facts and circumstances of that loan and that case.

8. I certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment

Re: In re Residential Mortgage Foreclosure
Foreclosure Pleading and Document Irregularities
Administrative Order 01-2010
Docket No. F-238-11

Dear Ms. Perez:

On February 14, 2011, I forwarded on behalf of The Bank of New York Mellon and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust, N.A. an original and two copies of, among other documents, the Certification of Glenn E. Mitchell in this matter.

It appears that the Certification sent to your office for filing was missing the second page. Accordingly, I am forwarding two complete copies of the same Certification (the original has already been filed, albeit with the second page missing) with the second page included. Please file this Certification and return a stamped "filed" copy to me in the enclosed, postage-prepaid envelope provided for your convenience. By copy of this letter, I am forwarding a complete copy of this Certification to Judge Barisonek.

I appreciate your cooperation in this regard.

Very truly yours,

JAMES H. FORTE
