SUPERIOR COURT
CLERK'S OFFICE

I am writing this letter to object to the mortgage company (ASC), order to show cause and intention notice to foreclose. I could not find the docket number for my case on the website provided through the courts. I am currently in a chapter 13 bankruptcy. I have had some financial problems over the past twelve months and I have missed a number of mortgage payments. I've just gotten myself back on track financially due to my wife going back to work a month ago; in which she was out of work for over ten months. I am able to start making the monthly mortgage payment of $1,748.00 starting in October. Please consider the nature of my past situation of reasons why I havent been able to pay the mortgage; as well as the present situation as to why I am able to begin making future payments. Thank You.

Respectfully,
Mike Russell
