To the Honorable Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of New Jersey:

I am pleased to submit to the Court the 2016 Annual Report of the Disciplinary Review Board. The Board concluded all matters pending from 2015. In 2016, the Board resolved 424 matters and transmitted to the Court 114 decisions in disciplinary cases.

In calendar year 2016, the Office of Board Counsel enhanced tracking of our costs collection module; continued making progress toward e-filing; completed our transaction reporting; and increased the number of decisions on the Board's section of the Judiciary's website (njcourts.com). Included on the website are recent decisions, as well as a full, searchable archive back to 1992. We will continue to upload past decisions to provide as complete an archive as possible.

In addition, in 2016, the Office of Board Counsel collected $212,173 in disciplinary costs assessed against attorneys.

As in 2016, the Board will continue to fairly and expeditiously resolve all cases before it, fulfilling its mission within the disciplinary system, as established and directed by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Chief Counsel

INTRODUCTION

The Disciplinary Review Board of the Supreme Court of New Jersey (Board) serves as the intermediate appellate level of the attorney disciplinary system in this state.

The district ethics committees investigate, prosecute, and recommend discipline in most disciplinary matters. The Office of Attorney Ethics (OAE) oversees the districts and exercises statewide jurisdiction over complex and emergent matters. In some cases, the Supreme Court appoints special masters to hear disciplinary matters. The Board reviews all recommendations for discipline from the districts and from special masters. The Board's decisions as to discipline are final in all cases, subject to the Supreme Court's confirming order, except those decisions recommending disbarment. In contrast, the Board's determinations of appeals from dismissals of ethics grievances and of appeals from Fee Arbitration Committee rulings are final, with no judicial recourse.

The Supreme Court created the Board in 1978 and the Office of Disciplinary Review Board Counsel (Office of Board Counsel) in 1984. In mid-1994, the Supreme Court eliminated all private discipline and opened to the public all disciplinary proceedings after the filing and service of a formal complaint.

As part of the disciplinary system, the Board is funded exclusively by annual assessments paid by all New Jersey attorneys. In 2016, New Jersey attorneys admitted in their fifth to forty-ninth year of practice were assessed a total of $212 to fund the disciplinary system. Attorneys in their third and fourth years of practice were assessed a total of $183. Attorneys in their second year of admission were assessed $35. Attorneys in their first year of admittance and attorneys practicing fifty or more years are not charged a fee.

All Board members are volunteers; however, its staff is professional. The 2016 budget for the disciplinary system, as approved by the Supreme Court, allocated $2,242,164 to cover salaries and benefits for Office of Board Counsel employees and an additional $222,275 to cover the Board's operating costs.

BOARD FUNCTIONS

The Board's review is de novo on the record, with oral argument at the Board's discretion. The Board hears oral argument on all cases in which a district ethics committee<sup>1</sup> or a special master issues a report recommending discipline greater than an admonition. At the conclusion of oral argument, the Board privately deliberates about the appropriate outcome of each case, voting for either dismissal of the complaint or for the imposition of one of several forms of discipline: admonition, reprimand, censure, suspension, and disbarment. Occasionally, the Board will remand a matter for further proceedings. Office of Board Counsel then prepares a formal decision for the Board's review. Upon the Board's approval, the decision is filed with the Supreme Court.

In addition to discipline, the Board may impose certain conditions or restrictions, such as, proctorship, course requirements, proof of fitness certified by a mental health practitioner, periodic submissions of trust account reconciliations, annual audits of trust account records, return of unearned fees, and the requirement that the attorney practice in a law firm setting or continue psychological/substance abuse therapy. In some instances, the Board may require community service.

In matters where the Board recommends disbarment, the Supreme Court automatically schedules oral argument before it. In all other instances, the Board's determination that discipline is warranted is deemed final, subject to the attorney's or the OAE's right to file a petition for review. Occasionally, the Supreme Court, on its own motion, schedules oral argument in non-disbarment cases.

When a district ethics committee recommends an admonition, the Board reviews the matter on the written record, without oral argument. If an admonition is appropriate, the Board issues a letter of admonition without Supreme Court review. Alternatively, the Board may schedule the matter for oral argument, if it appears that greater discipline is warranted, or may dismiss the complaint. R. 1:20-15(f)(3) allows the Board to issue a letter of admonition, without Supreme Court review, in those cases where a district ethics committee or a special master recommends a reprimand, but the Board determines that an admonition is the more appropriate form of discipline.

When an attorney has been convicted of a crime, or has been disciplined in another jurisdiction, the OAE will file with the Board a Motion for Final Discipline (R. 1:20-13(c)) or a Motion for Reciprocal Discipline (R. 1:20-14), respectively. Following oral argument, receipt of briefs, and the Board's deliberation, the Office of Board Counsel prepares a formal decision for the Board's review and, after approval, the decision is filed with the Supreme Court. The same post-decision procedures governing cases heard by a district ethics committee or a special master apply.

Under R. 1:20-10, motions for discipline by consent are filed directly with the Board, without a hearing below. Discipline by consent is not plea bargaining, which is not permitted in disciplinary matters. In such motions, the parties stipulate the unethical conduct, the specific Rules of Professional Conduct violated, and the level of discipline required by precedent. Following the Board's review of the motion on the written record, it may either grant the motion and file a letter-decision with the Supreme Court, or deny the motion and remand the case to the district ethics committee or to the OAE for appropriate action.

If an attorney fails to timely file a verified answer to a formal ethics complaint, the district ethics committee or the OAE certifies the record directly to the Board for the imposition of discipline. R. 1:20-4(f)(2). The Board treats the matter as a default. If the attorney files a motion to vacate the default, the Board will review the motion simultaneously with the default case. If the Board vacates the default, the matter is remanded to the district ethics committee or to the OAE for a hearing. Otherwise, the Board will proceed with the review of the case on a default basis, deeming the allegations of the complaint admitted. R. 1:20-4(f)(1). A formal decision is thereafter filed with the Supreme Court.

A disciplinary matter may also come to the Board in the form of a disciplinary stipulation. In these cases, the attorney and the ethics investigator jointly submit a statement of the attorney's conduct and a stipulation specifying the Rules of Professional Conduct that were violated. The Board may accept the stipulation and impose discipline by way of formal decision filed with the Supreme Court, or it may reject it and remand the matter either for a hearing or for other appropriate resolution.

In addition, the Board reviews cases, pursuant to R. 1:20-6(c), in which the pleadings do not raise genuine disputes of material fact, the respondent does not request to be heard in mitigation, and the presenter does not request to be heard in aggravation. In those cases, the Board reviews the pleadings and a statement of procedural history in determining the appropriate sanction to be imposed.

The Board also reviews direct appeals from grievants who claim that a district ethics committee improperly dismissed their grievance after an investigation, or improperly dismissed their complaint after a hearing, and from parties (both clients and attorneys) to fee arbitration proceedings who contend that at least one of the four grounds for appeal set out in R. 1:20A-3(c) exists.

Further, the Board reviews Petitions for Reinstatements, filed pursuant to R.1:20-21, by attorneys who have been suspended from the practice of law by the Supreme Court. Typically, the Board considers these petitions without the necessity of oral argument, and issues a recommendation to the Supreme Court in respect of whether the attorney should be permitted to return to the practice of law.

Finally, the Board also reviews, pursuant to R.1:20-9, requests for the release of confidential documents in connection with a disciplinary matter, and requests for protective orders to prohibit the release of specific information. Additionally, the Board considers Motions for Temporary Suspension filed by the OAE, in accordance with R.1:20-15(k), following an attorney's failure to comply with a fee arbitration determination or a stipulation of settlement. In those cases, the Board recommends to the Supreme Court whether the attorney should be temporarily suspended until the fee and any monetary sanction imposed are satisfied.

OFFICE OF BOARD COUNSEL

The Office of Board Counsel functions as a clerk's office (docketing, case processing, calendaring, distribution, and document storage), in-house counsel to the Board (providing legal research and legal advice to the Board), and a cost assessment and collection agency (assessing administrative and actual costs, collecting payments, and enforcing assessments by filing judgments and seeking temporary suspensions for non-payment).

In 2016, the Office of Board Counsel comprised eight attorneys (Chief Counsel, Deputy Chief Counsel, First Assistant Counsel, and five Assistant Counsel), one information technology analyst, one administrative supervisor, one administrative specialist, one court services officer, one technical assistant, and four secretaries.

Since 1991, the Office of Board Counsel has furnished pre-hearing memoranda to the Board in serious disciplinary cases, motions for consent to discipline greater than an admonition, and matters (such as defaults) containing novel legal or factual issues. To provide greater assistance to the Board's case review function, this policy was modified. In mid-2003, the Office of Board Counsel began supplying the Board with memoranda on all matters scheduled for consideration, except motions for temporary suspension. These in-depth memoranda set out the facts relevant to the issues raised, the applicable law, a pertinent analysis of both, and a recommendation of the appropriate level of discipline.

CASELOAD INFORMATION

The Board carried 133 matters into January 2016, twenty-nine more than it carried into 2015. See Figure 1. By December 31, 2016, all of those matters had been resolved. See Figure 2.

One hundred fifty two matters were pending on December 31, 2016: twenty-five (16.4%) presentments; five (3.3%) stipulations; thirty-three (21.7%) defaults; four (2.6%) admonitions; five (3.3%) motions for discipline by consent; fourteen (9.2%) motions for final discipline; nine (5.9%) motions for reciprocal discipline; forty-nine fee and ethics appeals (32.2%); one petition for restoration, four motions for temporary suspension (3.3%), one pursuant to R.1:20-6(c)(1), and two miscellaneous matters. See Figures 1 and 2. Figure 3 provides a graphic representation of the pending Board caseload at the close of 2016, as compared to year-end pending caseloads for 2012 through 2015.

During calendar year 2016, the Office of Board Counsel docketed 443 matters for review by the Board, fourteen more than 2015 and forty-two more than the 401 docketed in 2014. The number of ethics appeals increased in 2016: ninety-two appeals were filed in 2016, while sixty-six were filed in 2015. The number of fee appeals filed in 2016 decreased: ninety-four fee appeals were docketed in 2016, compared to 117 fee appeals docketed in 2015. Admonition filings decreased slightly: ten were docketed in 2016, while twelve were docketed in 2015.

In all, the Board resolved 424 of the 576 matters carried into or docketed during calendar year 2016 – a disposition rate of 73.6%. Figure 4 compares the Board's disposition rates from 2012 to 2016.

With the March 1, 1995 rule changes, the Court set specific time frames for disposition of matters at all levels of the disciplinary system. At the appellate level, pursuant to R. 1:20-8(c), recommendations for discipline are to be resolved within six months of the docket date, while all ethics and fee arbitration appeals have a three-month resolution time goal. See Figure 5.

Fee appeals processing times remained the same in 2016 and ethics appeals processing times increased slightly. Both fee and ethics appeals processing times were below or at the allotted resolution times. Disposition times for most other case types were higher than the recommended timeframe of six months. Vacancies in the Office of Board Counsel, primarily a long-term military assignment, as well as other significant absences due to health issues of other counsel, resulted in disposition rates in excess of the recommended six months in several case types.

BOARD ACTION

Discipline

In 2016, the Board rendered dispositions in thirty-six presentments, fifteen stipulations, seventeen motions for reciprocal discipline, and twenty-five motions for final discipline. The Board decided thirty-two motions by consent for the imposition of discipline greater than an admonition that were filed with the Board.

Of the forty-one defaults resolved by the Board, four were dismissed as moot due to the respondents' disbarment in other matters, four were administratively dismissed (two due to service deficiencies, one due to the OAE's withdrawal, and one due to respondent's death), and the Board determined to dismiss one matter.

The Board reviewed nineteen admonition matters in 2016. Of these, nine resulted in letters of admonition after review on the papers and four were treated as presentments: of these four, two were dismissed; one resulted in a censure, and one resulted in a reprimand.<sup>2</sup> In addition, the Board resolved and granted all six motions for imposition of admonition by consent.

The Board also reviewed and resolved thirty-four motions for temporary suspension, eight petitions for restoration, one R.1:20-6(c)(1) matter, and thirteen miscellaneous matters.

<sup>2</sup> Because cases that initially were docketed as admonitions were again docketed as "admonition to presentment" cases, they were counted in both categories to arrive at the total of nineteen matters.

Appeals

The Board considered 172 appeals in 2016, twenty-two fewer than in 2015. Of the seventy-nine ethics appeals reviewed in 2016, twelve cases (15.2%) were remanded by the Board to the district ethics committees for further action or for a new investigation, and one matter was heard as a presentment. The 2016 percentage of remand on ethics appeals was higher than the 10.4% experienced in 2015.

The rate of remand for fee appeals was higher than for ethics appeals in 2016: of the ninety-three fee appeals reviewed, twenty cases (21.5%) were remanded to the district fee arbitration committees, a rate lower than the 27.6% experienced in 2015. The reasons for fee remand varied: three were for due process concerns, three for a palpable mistake of law, eleven for a procedural error, and three to correct the calculation of the fee arbitration determination.

SUPREME COURT ACTION

In 2016, the Office of Board Counsel transmitted to the Supreme Court a total of 114 formal decisions in presentments, stipulations, motions for final discipline, motions for reciprocal discipline, and default matters. In addition to those decisions, seven recommendations on petitions for reinstatement, twenty-four recommendations on motions for temporary suspension, and seventeen determinations on motions for discipline by consent were sent to the Supreme Court.

Of the 114 formal decisions, the Supreme Court agreed with the Board's determination in 96.6% of the fifty-eight cases for which it issued final orders in 2016. In one matter, the Supreme Court determined to impose a lesser degree of discipline, and, in one instance, the Supreme Court dismissed the grievance. See Figure 6.

COLLECTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

The Board uniformly assesses administrative costs in all discipline cases, including admonitions. The Supreme Court's final order of discipline generally includes a requirement that the respondent pay the administrative costs of the action to the Disciplinary Oversight Committee. Since the adoption of R. 1:20-17 in 1995, administrative costs have included a flat charge for basic administrative costs, ranging from $650 to $2,000 per case, depending on case type, plus disciplinary expenses actually incurred, such as payments made by the disciplinary system for transcripts, court reporter services, file reproduction costs, and other out-of-pocket expenditures.

The Office of Board Counsel assesses and collects costs and, in certain cases, monetary sanctions, on behalf of the Disciplinary Oversight Committee. R. 1:20-17 provides various avenues of recourse for collection when an attorney fails to pay assessed costs, including automatic temporary suspension and entry of judgment. By the end of 2016, the Office of Board Counsel was current with cost assessment in every case in which the Supreme Court ordered costs to be paid. In 2016, the Supreme Court accepted consents to disbarment in fifteen matters unrelated to Board cases. Nevertheless, Office of Board Counsel staff assessed and began the collection process for Court-ordered costs in those matters, pursuant to R. 1:20-17.

During calendar year 2016, the Office of Board Counsel assessed disciplined attorneys a total of $334,188. In 2016, the Office of Board Counsel collected $212,173 which represented costs that were assessed in 2016 and prior years. This was $21,978 less than the $234,151 collected in 2015.

The Office of Board Counsel filed eleven motions for temporary suspension in 2016 against respondents who failed to satisfy their cost obligations. The amount due from those respondents was $23,707 and a total of $16,503 was collected as a result of the motions. Forty-nine judgments were filed in 2016 totaling $102,152. Payments totaling $15,300 were received toward these judgments, as well as judgments filed prior to 2016.

The Office of Board Counsel also processes and collects payments of monetary sanctions that the Board imposes on respondents, typically when the OAE files a motion for temporary suspension to enforce a fee arbitration award. The Board imposed nineteen such sanctions in 2016, totaling $9,500. Payments totaling $2,000 were received to satisfy four of those sanctions.

CONCLUSION

During calendar year 2017, the Board will continue to make every effort to manage its caseload both qualitatively and quantitatively. The Board strives for the prompt and fair disposition of all matters before it in order to effectively serve the primary goals of the attorney disciplinary process -- protection of the public and maintenance of public confidence in the bar.
