JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., ("JPMC"), on behalf of itself and authorized to act on behalf of the plaintiffs in certain pending, uncontested, pre-judgment foreclosure actions ("Foreclosure Plaintiffs"), brings this action pursuant to the April 4, 2012, Order of the New Jersey Supreme Court (the "April 4th Order"), that was entered following the Court's decision in U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Guillaume, 209 N.J. 449 (2012), ("Guillaume"). JPMC respectfully states as follows:

1. JPMC is a national banking association and a wholly-owned subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase & Co., a bank holding company.

2. JPMC services mortgage loans for residential properties in New Jersey.¹

3. When JPMC is the servicer of a loan, it undertakes payment collection, loss mitigation (modifications, short sales, deeds in lieu) and collection efforts, including foreclosure, with respect to a mortgage loan. If a loan is owned by another entity, JPMC undertakes these efforts in accordance with the contracts that govern its relationship with the owner of the loan as well as the loan documents, rules of Court and any applicable laws. As the entity collecting and processing payments, JPMC has the information relevant to the payments, escrows paid, amounts due and whether a loan is in default and by how much. This information is maintained on JPMC's systems of record. In cases in which JPMC is only the servicer (and not also the lender), the lender is not likely to have possession of the relevant servicing information, as was recognized by the Supreme Court when it revised the Court Rules governing foreclosures at R. 4:64-1 and R. 4:64-2 in June, 2011. JPMC makes this application to the Court on its behalf and pursuant to the authority granted to JPMC as the servicing agent of Foreclosure Plaintiffs in pending foreclosure cases.

4. The identities of the Foreclosure Plaintiffs in the foreclosure cases for which JPMC is seeking to issue corrected Notices of Intent pursuant to this application are identified alphabetically in the Counts 1 through 16. Attached as Exhibits 1 through 16 to each of those Counts are the current lists of certain pending foreclosure cases that require corrected NOIs (collectively referred to hereafter as the "Corrected NOI List – Group 1"). JPMC will file additional similar applications such as this, concerning additional foreclosure actions.

¹ JPMC is successor by merger to Chase Home Finance LLC. JPMC also acquired servicing rights from EMC Mortgage LLC f/k/a EMC Mortgage Corporation and Washington Mutual Bank. JPMC also appears as a plaintiff in foreclosure proceedings in its capacity as a trustee for the owners of securitized loans. This current application to the Court does not include those cases in which JPMC acts only as a trustee, and not the servicer.

5. One of the duties of a servicer on a defaulted mortgage loan in New Jersey is to prepare and serve the Notice of Intent to Foreclose (“NOI”), in accordance with the applicable contracts and as required by N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56 of the Fair Foreclosure Act. The NOI is prepared based on current loan information held by JPMC and includes, among other data elements, information about the amount that is required to reinstate the loan and the date by which reinstatement must occur.

6. On February 27, 2012, the Supreme Court decided Guillaume and held that the Fair Foreclosure Act requires strict adherence to the notice requirements set forth in N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56(c) for all NOIs. The Court further held that a court adjudicating a foreclosure action in which the strict requirements of N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56 were not followed has the discretion to choose the appropriate remedy, permitting a cure of the deficient NOI, or imposing such other remedy as may be appropriate to the specific case.

7. Following its decision in Guillaume, the Court entered the April 4th Order which authorizes the Hon. Margaret Mary McVeigh, P.J.Ch., Passaic Vicinage, and the Hon. Paul Innes, P.J.Ch., Mercer Vicinage, to entertain summary actions by Orders to Show Cause as to why Plaintiffs in any uncontested residential mortgage foreclosure actions filed on or before February 27, 2012, in which final judgment has not been entered, who caused NOIs to be served that are deficient under the Fair Foreclosure Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56, should not be allowed to serve corrected NOIs on defendant/mortgagors and/or parties obligated on the debt (the “Foreclosure Defendants”).

8. The April 4th Order further states that any corrected NOI must be accompanied by a letter to the Foreclosure Defendants setting forth the reasons why the corrected NOI is being served, the procedure to follow in the event a Foreclosure Defendant wishes to object to the NOI, the name of a person to contact with any questions, and that the receipt of the corrected NOI allows Foreclosure Defendants 30 days² in which to object or to cure the default.

9. JPMC has identified a population of foreclosure cases in which the previously served NOIs failed to include the name and address of the lender, as required by N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56(c)(11). JPMC has also determined that it may lack sufficient information to verify the facts surrounding the mailing of the original NOI (e.g., JPMC may lack proof of mailing for an NOI mailed by a vendor; or JPMC may lack a certified mail receipt for an NOI). Certain of these foreclosure matters are listed on the Corrected NOI List – Group 1.³ The Corrected NOI List – Group 1 was reviewed for accuracy to verify the status of the foreclosures, the effect of loss mitigation on pending foreclosures, whether there are relevant bankruptcy proceedings and whether, since the original NOIs were sent, there were intervening deaths of Foreclosure Defendants.

10. The Corrected NOI List – Group 1 attached as Exhibits 1 through 16 contain certain loans that are pre-judgment, uncontested foreclosures that JPMC is servicing and in which deficient NOIs were served by JPMC and/or JPMC may lack sufficient information to verify mailing. Specifically, as directed by the Supreme Court in Guillaume and the April 4th Order, the Corrected NOI List – Group 1 includes a listing of certain uncontested foreclosures that were filed on or before February 27, 2012 and which JPMC is servicing the loans in which final judgment has not been entered, and in which JPMC is seeking leave to file a corrected NOI.

² JPMC will provide borrowers 35 days from the date of the corrected NOI, as reflected in the correspondence that will be sent to the borrowers.

³ As set forth in ¶ 4, JPMC has divided its portfolio and will be submitting additional similar applications. Each application will contain its own list of covered foreclosures, which will be referred to as “Corrected NOI List – Group [#]”. Please note that the same plaintiff group name may be included in multiple applications. For example, Corrected NOI List – Group 1 and Corrected NOI List – Group 2 may each contain foreclosures in the name of Bank of America as trustee for various trusts.

11. The Corrected NOI List – Group 1 identifies (1) the name of the Plaintiff in the foreclosure action, (2) the name of the Foreclosure Defendant, (3) the foreclosure docket number, (4) the vicinage, (5) whether the foreclosure was contested; (6) the name of the foreclosure attorney, and (7) whether the foreclosure is currently on hold (e.g., bankruptcy; loss mitigation).⁴ While JPMC is not the Plaintiff in each of the foreclosure actions, it is the servicer of each such loan, maintains the records for each such loan, and is responsible for mailing the corrected NOI pursuant to the relevant contracts with the Foreclosure Plaintiffs.

12. To comply with the April 4th Order, attached as Exhibit "A" to the Verified Complaint is the proposed form of letter ("Explanatory Letter") that JPMC intends to send to each Foreclosure Defendant on the corrected NOI List submitted with this application. In accordance with the Supreme Court in the April 4th Order, the proposed form of Explanatory Letter:

- a. explains the reason why the corrected NOI is being served,
- b. explains the procedure to follow in the event a Foreclosure Defendant wishes to object to the NOI,
- c. borrower name, loan number, plaintiff and a docket number for the underlying foreclosure action,
- d. identifies the individual(s) a Foreclosure Defendant should contact with any questions, and
- e. advises the Foreclosure Defendant of the right to object to the corrected NOI as well as the right to cure the default within 35 days of the date of the corrected NOI.

The corrected NOIs will exclude attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the pending foreclosure

⁴ Because considerable time has passed since NOIs were originally sent in the foreclosure actions, the Foreclosure Plaintiff initially identified in the caption may not be the current correct entity that will be listed in the corrected NOI. For sake of clarity, the corrected NOI will list the current lender and lender's address and JPMC will require that foreclosure counsel take appropriate steps to change the plaintiff in affected foreclosure actions where required.

cases.

13. Attached as Exhibit "B" to the Verified Complaint is the proposed form of corrected NOI which JPMC will send to each of the Foreclosure Defendants identified on the Corrected NOI List – Group 1 submitted with this application. Each Foreclosure Defendant will be served with a corrected NOI that includes, inter alia, the information specific to their mortgage loan, their default, the lender/holder's name and address and the amount to reinstate, as provided for in the Order to Show Cause.

Re: Order to Show Cause: In re Application by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., to Issue Corrected Notices of Intent to Foreclose on Behalf of Identified Foreclosure Plaintiffs in Uncontested Cases (Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Passaic County, Docket No.: [_____])

Borrower Name: {Mortgagor1}
{Mortgagor2}
{Mortgagor3}
Loan Number: {Loan Number}
Plaintiff Name in Foreclosure action: {Plaintiff Name}
Docket Number in Foreclosure action: {Docket#}

Dear {Mortgagor Name(s)}:

Please be advised that the New Jersey Supreme Court recently held in U.S. Bank N.A. v. Guillaume, 209 N.J. 449 (2012), that mortgage lenders seeking to foreclose must comply with the New Jersey Fair Foreclosure Act's requirement that a Notice of Intention to Foreclose set forth the name and address of the lender.

Why You Are Receiving This Letter

You are receiving this letter because you are the defendant in a pending foreclosure action, and it is believed that the Notice of Intention to Foreclose served upon you prior to the commencement of the foreclosure action did not comply with the requirements of the Fair Foreclosure Act and/or JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase"), the servicer of your loan, may lack sufficient information to adequately confirm mailing of the original Notice of Intention to Foreclose.

By the court's Order to Show Cause dated _____, 2013, and in compliance with the Supreme Court's opinion in U.S. Bank N.A. v. Guillaume, Hon. Margaret Mary McVeigh, P.J.Ch., Passaic Vicinage, gave permission to Chase to serve, along with the Order to Show Cause, corrected Notices of Intention to Foreclose on certain defendant mortgagors/parties obligated on the debt in pending foreclosure actions filed before February 28, 2012.

The docket number for your foreclosure action may be found in the subject line of this letter.

Information About the Corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose

Also enclosed with this letter is the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose. It allows you an additional 35 days in which to cure the default without having to pay the plaintiff's court costs and attorneys' fees. It also sets forth important information about your loan, including information on how you can cure the default; the consequences of failing to cure the default; contact information for the plaintiff; and information about retaining counsel and borrower assistance. If you fail to cure the default by the date set forth in the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose, the foreclosure action against you will proceed.

With the passage of time since the foreclosure action was filed against you, the lender on your loan may have changed from the named plaintiff in the foreclosure action. The corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose lists the name and address of the current lender on your loan.

How to File an Objection

You have the right to object to the enclosed Order to Show Cause (the process by which the court gave the plaintiff permission to serve the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose). To do so, you must file a written objection under the docket number for the Order to Show Cause.

You also have the right to object to the enclosed corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose. To do so, you must file a written objection under the docket number for the foreclosure action in your individual case. The docket number for your foreclosure action may be found in the subject line of this letter.

For either type of objection, you must set forth with specificity the basis of the objection, and file the objection with the Superior Court Clerk's Office on or before _____, 2013 at the following address:

Superior Court Clerk's Office, Foreclosure Processing Services
Attention: Objection to Notice of Intention to Foreclose
P.O. Box 971
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

You must also serve a copy of the objection on the plaintiff's attorney, Christopher C. Loeber, Esq., at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, 502 Carnegie Center, Princeton, NJ 08540-6241, and mail a copy of the objection to Judge McVeigh at:

The Superior Court of New Jersey, Passaic County Courthouse,
71 Hamilton Street
Chambers 100
Paterson, New Jersey 07505

Your personal appearance at the Superior Court Clerk's Office or your local courthouse will not qualify as an objection. A telephone call will not protect your rights; you must file your objection and serve it on the plaintiff's attorney if you want the court to hear your objection to the relief the plaintiff is seeking. If you file a specific written objection, the case will be sent to a Judge for resolution. You will be informed by the Judge of the time and place of the hearing on your objection.

Re: In re Application by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. to Issue Corrected
 Notices of Intent to Foreclose on Behalf of Identified Foreclosure
 Plaintiffs in Uncontested Cases

Dear Judge McVeigh:

This firm represents JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“JPMC”). As set forth in the enclosed Verified Complaint, JPMC makes this application on behalf of itself and other Foreclosure Plaintiffs for certain loans for which JPMC acts as servicer, pursuant to the authority granted to JPMC by those Foreclosure Plaintiffs. On September 26, 2012, JPMC filed a similar request to this Court and, following receipt of the Order granting such request, later withdrew the request. JPMC now seeks to renew the requested Order from this Court permitting JPMC to issue corrected Notices of Intent to Foreclose (“NOI”) as set forth in the New Jersey Supreme Court Order dated April 4, 2012, that was entered following the Court’s decision in U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Guillaume, 209 N.J. 449 (2012), (“Guillaume”). JPMC’s application is similar to the application submitted by Wells Fargo on July 17, 2012, which was previously approved by the Court. At the request of the Court, JPMC has divided its portfolio of pending matters and currently anticipates that it will file approximately seven applications such as this.

By way of background, JPMC services mortgage loans for residential properties in New Jersey. Ver. Comp., ¶ 2. JPMC services loans both where (i) JPMC is the lender and (ii) where another entity is the lender, and JPMC acts as servicer under agreement with the lender. As the servicer of mortgage loans, JPMC undertakes payment collection, loss mitigation and collection efforts, including foreclosure. Id., ¶ 3. JPMC undertakes those tasks in accordance with the contracts that govern its relationship with the owners of the loans as well as the loan documents, Rules of Court and any applicable laws. Id. As the entity collecting and processing payments, JPMC possesses the information relevant to the payments made, escrows, payments that are due and whether a loan is in default and by how much. Id. This information is maintained on JPMC's systems of record. Id. In cases where JPMC is acting as servicer for another Foreclosure Plaintiff, the Foreclosure Plaintiff is not likely to have possession of the relevant servicing information. Id.

One of JPMC's duties as a servicer on a defaulted mortgage is to issue the NOI, in accordance with the Fair Foreclosure Act ("FFA") at N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56. The NOI is prepared based upon current loan information held by JPMC. Id., ¶ 4.

On February 27, 2012, the New Jersey Supreme Court decided Guillaume and held that the FFA requires strict adherence to the notice requirements set forth at N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56(c) for all NOIs. The Court also held that a court adjudicating a foreclosure action in which the strict requirements of N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56(c) were not met has the discretion to choose the appropriate remedy, including allowing a corrected NOI to be served.

Following its decision in Guillaume, the Supreme Court issued an Order on April 4, 2012 which authorizes this Court to entertain summary actions by Order to Show Cause as to why Plaintiffs who caused deficient NOIs to be served should not be allowed to issue corrected NOIs to defendant/mortgagors and/or parties obligated on the debt ("Foreclosure Defendants") in pending, pre-judgment uncontested foreclosures filed prior to February 27, 2012 in which final judgment has not yet been entered. The April 4th Order also instructed that any corrected NOI must be accompanied by a letter to each Foreclosure Defendant setting forth:

- the reasons why the corrected NOI is being served;
- the procedure to follow in the event a Foreclosure Defendant wishes to object to the corrected NOI;
- the name of a person to contact with any questions; and
- that the receipt of the corrected NOI allows the Foreclosure Defendant 30¹ days in which to object to or cure the default.

In accordance with the decision in Guillaume, JPMC has identified a population of foreclosure cases in which the previously served NOIs failed to include the name and address of the lender, as required by N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56(c)(11). JPMC has also determined that it may lack sufficient information to verify the facts surrounding the mailing of the original NOI (e.g., JPMC may lack proof of mailing for an NOI mailed by a vendor; or JPMC may lack a certified mail receipt for an NOI). Accordingly, JPMC seeks an Order from this Court allowing JPMC to serve corrected NOIs that will include the name and address of the current lender and for which JPMC will have conclusive proof of mailing so that Certifications of Due Diligence can be signed and the uncontested² foreclosures can proceed to final judgment.

JPMC has worked with its New Jersey foreclosure attorneys to compile a list of certain pending, uncontested foreclosures in New Jersey in which final judgment has not been entered (the “Corrected NOI List – Group 1”). This list includes foreclosures in which JPMC served technically deficient NOIs prior to February 12, 2012 that failed to identify the lender and the lender’s address and foreclosures for which JPMC may lack sufficient proof of mailing. For each pending case at issue in this application, the Corrected NOI List – Group 1 includes the named Plaintiff, the Docket Number, the first named Foreclosure Defendant and the County. The Corrected NOI List – Group 1, attached as Exhibits 1 through 16 to the Verified Complaint, is broken down by each named Plaintiff. There are a total of 16 named Plaintiffs for which JPMC seeks to correct previously served NOIs pursuant to this application. Those named Plaintiffs (and their affiliated entities) are the following:³

1. Bank of America
2. Citibank
3. Deutsche Bank
4. Eastern American Mortgage Co.
5. EMC Mortgage Corporation
6. Federal National Mortgage Association
7. HSBC
8. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.
9. LaSalle Bank
10. Mortgage Electronic Registration System, Inc.
11. Metmor Financial, Inc.
12. PNC Bank
13. The Bank of New York
14. US Bank

² JPMC will also file a supplemental motion concerning contested foreclosure files which were subsequently returned to the Office of Foreclosure.

³ As set forth in the introduction, JPMC has divided its portfolio and will be submitting additional similar applications. Each application will contain its own list of covered foreclosures, which will be referred to as “Corrected NOI List – Group [#]”. Please note that the same plaintiff group name may be included in multiple applications. For example, Corrected NOI List – Group 1 and Corrected NOI List – Group 2 may each contain foreclosures in the name of “Bank of America” as trustee for various trusts.

Hon. Margaret Mary McVeigh, P.J.Ch.
January 25, 2013
Page 4

15. Washington Mutual
16. Wells Fargo

In accordance with the April 4th Order, in conjunction with this Court's guidance, JPMC will also send a form of letter ("Explanatory Letter") to each Foreclosure Defendant on the Corrected NOI List – Group 1. Attached as Exhibit A to the Verified Complaint is a form of Explanatory Letter that will:

- explain the reason why the corrected NOI is being served;
- explain the procedure to follow in the event that a Foreclosure Defendant wishes to object to the corrected NOI;
- the borrower name, loan number, plaintiff name and docket number for the underlying foreclosure action;
- identify a contact person for any questions; and
- advise the Foreclosure Defendant of their right to object to the corrected NOI as well as the right to cure the default within 35 days of the date of the corrected NOI.

In further support of this application, JPMC has also supplied, as Exhibit B to the Verified Complaint, the proposed form of corrected NOI which JPMC will serve on each Foreclosure Defendant identified on the Corrected NOI List – Group 1. The corrected NOI will include, inter alia, information specific to their loan, their default and the lender name and address. In addition, the corrected NOI will also exclude attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the pending foreclosure actions. Permitting JPMC to issue corrected NOIs will provide the Foreclosure Defendants with yet another opportunity to cure their default and reinstate their loans, without the incursion of attorneys' fees and costs that are permitted to be charged after a foreclosure case has been filed. Provision of another opportunity to cure provides a benefit to the Foreclosure Defendants.

Notice will also be provided via publication notice in four newspapers to be chosen by this Court. JPMC will publish the proposed Publication Notice provided with these papers two times in each of the four papers, thereby providing additional notice to Foreclosure Defendants.

Allowing JPMC to cure the deficient NOIs as requested in this application is the correct remedy. In Guillaume, the Supreme Court held that when faced with a deficient NOI, the trial court can determine the appropriate remedy and should consider the express purpose of the NOI provision: "to provide notice that makes 'the debtor aware of the situation' and to enable the homeowner to attempt to cure the default." 209 N.J. at 479. The Court stated that in fashioning a remedy, the trial court should “consider the impact of the defect in the notice of intention upon the homeowner’s information about the status of the loan, and on his or her opportunity to cure the default.” Id. In determining that a cure was the appropriate remedy, the trial court in Guillaume took such considerations into account when fashioning the remedy, including the nature of the deficiency. Id. at 480.

Hon. Margaret Mary McVeigh, P.J.Ch.

As in Guillaume, in this application, JPMC seeks an Order allowing it to issue corrected NOIs to include the name and address of the lender in uncontested foreclosure actions. The trial court in Guillaume determined that the nature of that deficiency would allow a cure of the NOI, as opposed to some other remedy, even in the context of a contested foreclosure. In the application before this Court, JPMC seeks to correct the same deficiency but in uncontested foreclosures. In addition, and out of abundance of caution, JPMC seeks to serve corrected NOIs on foreclosures where it may lack sufficient proof of mailing so that counsel can sign Certificates of Diligent Inquiry. The Foreclosure Defendants have already received numerous forms of notice concerning their foreclosure case during their cases and, with the issuance of a corrected NOI, will receive yet another opportunity to cure their defaults and reinstate their loans. Further, there is no indication of prejudice nor could there be because JPMC will waive the attorneys’ fees and costs that have been incurred in the foreclosures for purposes of the corrected NOI and possible reinstatement pursuant to this application. Furthermore, as the proposed Explanatory Letter makes clear, to the extent that a Foreclosure Defendant wants to object to the information contained in the corrected NOI itself, the Foreclosure Defendant will have the opportunity to raise and voice those objections in their individual foreclosure cases. Moreover, the Order to Show Cause provides a mechanism and process whereby the Foreclosure Defendants can raise directly with this Court any concern, objection or potential prejudice that they believe results from allowing JPMC to correct the deficient NOIs.

For the reasons set forth in JPMC’s application, the Supreme Court has issued an Order that is faithful to the decision in Guillaume, and provides a mechanism to cure deficient NOIs so that Foreclosure Defendants will receive the notice that they should have received under the FFA and will also allow for the orderly judicial administration in the pending, uncontested foreclosures. For these reasons, it is respectfully requested that this Court:

- (a) Approve the form of Explanatory Letter at Exhibit A to the Verified Complaint;
- (b) Approve the form of corrected NOI at Exhibit B to the Verified Complaint; and
- (c) Allow JPMC to serve corrected NOIs to the Foreclosure Defendants on the Corrected NOI List – Group 1.

Hon. Margaret Mary McVeigh, P.J.Ch.

Please note that the proposed Order respectfully requests 45 days for JPMC to complete process of mailing the OSC Package to the Foreclosure Defendants. JPMC believes this is appropriate given the volume and complexity of the mailing.

Undersigned counsel appreciates the Court's attention to this application and will be available to the Court to respond to any questions that may arise after review of the material filed today.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear {Mortgagor Name(s)}: (From Above)

Our records show that your Loan is in default and you have breached the terms of the Mortgage or Deed of Trust ("Security Instrument") securing your Loan.

Under the terms of the Security Instrument, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase") hereby notifies you of the following:

1. You are in default because you have failed to pay the required monthly installments commencing with the payment due {First Due Date}. (MSP - SER1)
2. As of {Current Date}, the total amount (including principal, interest, and escrow if applicable) under the terms of your loan documents of ${Sum of Below Figures} is past due.

Principal and Interest Due: {Total Delq P&I} (MAS1/USR2)
Escrow Advanced Balance: {Escrow Advanced Balance} (SER1/LOAN or P309)

Amount Held in Suspense ${Susp Amt}(MSP - SER1)

Please note: The past due amount is what is required to bring your loan current and does not include any payment changes that may occur. After you send in that amount, Chase will review your taxes owed, insurance and any other escrow amounts, and send you a payment change notification, if applicable. This may result in an increase in your monthly payment.

If you have any questions about the total amount due, please call us as soon as possible at 800-848-9380.

3. You have the right to cure the default on or before {Current Date + 35} to prevent Chase from resuming the foreclosure proceedings.
4. Action required to cure the default: You must pay the total amount due listed in Paragraph 2, minus the Amount Held in Suspense, if any, on or before {Current Date + 35}, in order to cure this default. If you have any questions about the total amount due, please call us as soon as possible at 800-848-9380.
5. If you fail to cure the default on or before {Current Date + 35}, Chase may take steps to terminate your ownership in the Property by resuming the foreclosure suit concerning the loan, in a court of competent jurisdiction, all without further notice to you. If this happens, Chase will be entitled to collect its expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in the Security Instrument, which may include, but not be limited to, allowable foreclosure/attorney fees, and other expenses permitted by applicable law, in an amount not to exceed that amount permitted by the Rules Governing the Courts of the State of New Jersey.
6. If permitted by your loan documents or applicable law, you have the right to reinstate after acceleration of the Loan and the right to assert in the foreclosure proceeding the nonexistence of a default, or any other defense to acceleration, foreclosure, and sale. In the event we resume the foreclosure proceeding against you, you will still have a right to cure the default prior to entry of the foreclosure judgment pursuant to Section 5 of the Fair Foreclosure Act; however, you will be responsible for our court costs and attorney fees in an amount not to exceed that amount permitted pursuant to the Rules Governing the Courts of the State of New Jersey.

If you are unable to obtain an attorney, you may communicate with the New Jersey Bar Association or Lawyer Referral Service in the county in which the Property is located. AN IMPORTANT REMINDER FOR ALL OUR CUSTOMERS

As stated in the "Questions and Answers for Borrowers about the Homeowner Affordability and Stability Plan" distributed by the Obama Administration, "Borrowers should beware of any organization that attempts to charge a fee for housing counseling or modification of a delinquent loan, especially if they require a fee in advance." Loan modification scams should be reported to PreventLoanScams.org or by calling 888-995-HOPE; 888-995-4673. We offer loan modification assistance free of charge (i.e., no modification fee required). Please call us immediately at 866-550-5705 to discuss your options. The longer you delay, the fewer options you may have.

An important message from the Federal Trade Commission

A note to Homeowners

Facing foreclosure? Scammers are targeting people having trouble paying their mortgages. Some claim to be able to “rescue” homeowners from foreclosures, while others promise loan modifications – for free. The Federal Trade Commission, the nation’s consumer protection agency, wants you to know how to avoid scams that could make your housing situation go from bad to worse.

Don’t Get Hit by a Pitch.

“We can stop your foreclosure!”

“97% success rate!”

“Guaranteed to save your home!”

These kinds of claims are the tell-tail signs of a foreclosure rip-off. Steer clear of anyone who offers an easy out.

Don’t Pay for a Promise.

Don’t pay any business, organization, or person who promises to prevent foreclosure or get you a new mortgage. These so-called “foreclosure rescue companies claim they can help save your home, but they’re out to make a quick buck. Some may request hefty fees in advance – and then stop returning your calls. Others may string you along before disclosing their charges. Cut off all dealings if someone insists on a fee.

Send Payments Directly.

Some scammers offer to handle financial arrangements for you, but then just pocket your payment. Send your mortgage payments ONLY to your mortgage servicer.

Don’t Pay for a Second Opinion.

Have you applied for a loan modification and have been turned down? Never pay for a “second opinion.”

Imitations = Frustrations.

Some con artists use names, phone numbers, and websites to make it look like they’re part of the government. If you want to contact a government agency, type the web address directly into your browser and look up an address you aren’t sure about. Use phone numbers listed on agency websites or in other reliable sources, like the Blue Pages in your phone directory. Don’t click on links or open any attachments in unexpected emails.
