Subj: Revised Statewide Bail Schedules/Permissible Use of Monetary Bail Schedules

Date: December 30, 2016

This Directive promulgates revised Statewide Bail Schedules and sets forth the permissible use of Bail Schedules when setting monetary bail. It is effective January 1, 2017 and supersedes Directive # 9-05 and all subsequent supplements to that directive.

The following summarizes the use of Bail Schedules if monetary bail is being considered on or after January 1, 2017:

1. The Bail Schedules will not be used to impose monetary bail for an “eligible defendant” as a condition of pretrial release.
2. For indictable offenses, the Bail Schedules will only continue to be used for defendants arrested on or prior to December 31, 2016 at bail reduction/bail review hearings conducted thereafter in Superior Court.
3. For disorderly persons offenses/petty disorderly persons offenses, the Bail Schedules will continue to be used for the following non-eligible defendants if monetary bail is being considered for:
 - a. A defendant initially arrested on a complaint-warrant or charged on a complaint-summons for a disorderly persons offense/petty disorderly persons offense prior to January 1, 2017 and the defendant later fails to appear in court and is arrested on or after January 1, 2017 for that failure to appear. Monetary bail may be set upon issuance of the bench warrant or upon arrest for that failure to appear.

- b. A defendant initially charged on a complaint-summons for a disorderly persons offense allegedly committed on or after January 1, 2017 who thereafter fails to appear in court. Monetary bail may be set upon issuance of the bench warrant or upon arrest for that failure to appear.
- c. A defendant charged with a petty disorderly persons offense:
 - (1) Monetary bail may be set on the initial complaint-warrant. If the defendant later fails to appear in court, monetary bail may be set when the bench warrant is issued or upon arrest for that failure to appear.
 - (2) If initially released on a complaint-summons and the defendant later fails to appear in court, monetary bail may be set when the bench warrant is issued or upon arrest for that failure to appear.

Overview

It is strongly emphasized that the monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules continue to be advisory, not preset. An individualized assessment of the defendant's risk of flight/risk of failure to appear in court shall be conducted when considering or setting monetary bail. Releasing a defendant on his or her own recognizance (R.O.R.) is permissible for any offense where the judge/judicial officer deems it appropriate.

The advisory monetary ranges contained in the Bail Schedules have not changed. The advisory monetary bail ranges for attempts or conspiracies to commit crimes should continue to generally be the same as for the actual substantive crimes.

For persons charged with fourth degree crimes, disorderly persons offenses, or petty disorderly person offenses, ordinarily the maximum statutory bail amount is $2500. For good cause shown, however, a higher monetary bail may be imposed after evaluation of a defendant's risk of flight/risk of failure to appear in court. See N.J.S.A. 2C:6-1. See also State v. Steele, 430 N.J. Super. 24 (App. Div. 2013), subsequent appeal dismissed 223 N.J. 284 (2014).

Many of the court rules and statutes cited in the 2005 Bail Schedules and supplements thereto have since been amended and now focus primarily on "eligible defendants" under the Criminal Justice Reform Law, N.J.S.A. 2A:162-15 et seq., effective January 1, 2017. The court rules and statutes cited in the new Bail Schedules promulgated by this directive provide guidance regarding whether or not the Bail Schedules will apply in various situations when initially setting bail or thereafter conducting bail reduction/bail review hearings.

The previous Bail Schedules 1 and 2 have not been merged; however, the captions citing to the rules, which have been substantially revised, including as to who can set bail for particular offenses, have been removed. Previously, Bail Schedule 1 offenses were required to have bail set by Superior Court judges, while Bail Schedule 2 offenses could be set by a Superior Court judge, a Municipal Court judge, or an authorized Municipal Court

Administrator or Deputy Court Administrator.

For defendants who are eligible for monetary bail but unable to post the monetary bail amount set, the defendant shall have that monetary bail reviewed promptly and may file an application seeking a monetary bail reduction, which must be heard in an expedited manner. See Rules 3:26-2(c)(1) , 7:3-1(e), and 7:4-9(a). Additionally, Criminal Presiding Judges and Municipal Presiding Judges must ensure that procedures are in place for periodic bail reviews for incarcerated defendants who cannot post the monetary bail.

Bail Schedules – Eligible Defendants

Under the Criminal Justice Reform Law, an “eligible defendant” is defined as a person for whom a complaint-warrant is issued for an initial charge involving an indictable offense or a disorderly persons offense allegedly committed on or after January 1, 2017. A person charged on a complaint-warrant for an indictable or disorderly persons offense issued prior to January 1, 2017 but not initially arrested on that charge until on or after January 1, 2017 also is an eligible defendant. See N.J.S.A. 2A:162-15.

Further, by December 6, 2016 order of the Supreme Court, for all complaint-warrants on indictable and disorderly persons charges issued prior to January 1, 2017 for which a monetary bail amount has been set but the defendant has not been arrested on these charges before January 1, 2017, the bail amount shall be voided as of January 1, 2017. The voiding of the bail amounts will not otherwise affect the warrant itself. Again, as set forth in the preceding paragraph, these are “eligible defendants” under the Criminal Justice Reform Law.

The advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules promulgated by this directive will not apply to eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law, even if the judge is considering monetary bail as a condition of pretrial release.

Bail Schedules – Indictable Offenses

The Bail Schedules will only continue to apply to defendants arrested for indictable offenses on or prior to December 31, 2016 at bail reduction/bail review hearings conducted thereafter in Superior Court. The option of R.O.R. is available whenever a judge deems it appropriate. The option of 10% cash bail will remain available where permissible under N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12.

The Bail Schedules will not apply to defendants initially charged on complaint-summons for indictable offenses on or after January 1, 2017, who thereafter fail to appear in court. Monetary bail may be set upon issuance of the bench warrant or upon arrest for that failure to appear, but the advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will not apply.

The Bail Schedules will not apply to defendants initially charged on complaint-summons for indictable offenses before January 1, 2017 who thereafter fail to appear in court. Monetary bail may be set upon issuance of the bench warrant or upon arrest for that failure to appear, but the advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will not apply.

Bail Schedules - Disorderly Persons Offenses/Petty Disorderly Persons Offenses

There are three areas where Municipal Court judges and/or authorized Municipal Court Administrators and Deputy Court Administrators will continue to set monetary bail on disorderly persons offenses/petty disorderly persons offenses on or after January 1, 2017. See N.J.S.A. 2B:12-21c. Those three areas are as follows:

1. The defendant was initially arrested on a complaint-warrant or charged on a complaint-summons for a disorderly persons offense/petty disorderly persons offense prior to January 1, 2017 and the defendant later fails to appear in court and is arrested on or after January 1, 2017 for that failure to appear. This defendant is not an eligible defendant under the Criminal Justice Reform Law. Monetary bail may be set upon issuance of the bench warrant or upon arrest for that failure to appear. The advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will continue to apply.

2. The defendant is initially charged on a complaint-summons for a disorderly persons offense allegedly committed on or after January 1, 2017 and thereafter fails to appear in court. Monetary bail may be set upon issuance of the bench warrant or upon arrest for that failure to appear. The advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will continue to apply. This defendant is not an eligible defendant under the Criminal Justice Reform Law because the original charge is on a complaint-summons.

3. The defendant is charged with a petty disorderly persons offense. This defendant is not an eligible defendant under the Criminal Justice Reform Law. Petty disorderly persons offenses are not included in the new law. As such, the following apply to petty disorderly persons offenses:

Monetary bail may be set on the initial complaint-warrant. If the defendant later fails to appear in court, monetary bail may be set when the bench warrant is issued or upon arrest for that failure to appear.

If initially released on a complaint-summons and the defendant later fails to appear in court, monetary bail may be set when the bench warrant is issued or upon arrest for that failure to appear.

The advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will continue to apply to the defendants referenced in this paragraph (3).

Ordinarily, as noted above, the maximum bail in this situation is $2500, unless the judge/judicial officer finds good cause for a higher amount based upon the defendant's risk of flight/risk of nonappearance in court.

The provisions of this Directive also are incorporated on the first two pages of the attached Bail Schedules. SUMMARY OF RULES AND STATUTES REGARDING BAIL FOR INDICTABLE OFFENSES

Rule or Statute	Description
Rule 2:9-4 Bail After Conviction	This Rule provides that the defendant, after conviction, shall be admitted to bail on motion and notice to the county prosecutor pending the prosecution of an appeal or proceedings for certification only if it appears that the case involves a substantial question that should be determined by the appellate court, that the safety of any person or of the community will not be seriously threatened if the defendant remains on bail, and that there is no significant risk of defendant's flight. A trial court denying bail shall state briefly its reason therefore. A judge allowing bail may at any time revoke the order admitting the defendant to bail.
Rule 3:26-1(d) Uniform Criminal Extradition Law	This Rule provides that where the person has been arrested in an extradition proceeding, pursuant to the Uniform Criminal Extradition Law, N.J.S.A. 2A:160-6 et seq. , the court may set monetary bail or bond except where that person is charged with a crime punishable by death or life imprisonment. The court may also commit the person to the county jail as provided by the Uniform Criminal Extradition Law, N.J.S.A. 2A:160-6 et seq. These defendants are not eligible defendants.
Rule 3:26-2(a) Uniform Criminal Extradition Law	This Rule provides that a Superior Court judge may set monetary bail for any offense and may set monetary bail or take any action in accordance with the Uniform Criminal Extradition Law, N.J.S.A. 2A:160-6 et seq. , for any person arrested in any extradition proceeding. These defendants are not eligible defendants. Judges shall evaluate the crime charged and other relevant circumstances. Under the Uniform Criminal Extradition Law, a 10% cash bail or alternative is probably permissible if the judge decides to set a monetary bail rather than holding the defendant without bail.
Rule 3:26-3 Bail for Witness	This Rule provides for proceedings to be conducted by a Superior Court judge in a matter where either the prosecutor or defense counsel is concerned that a person with material and relevant information in a pending case may fail to respond to a subpoena. The Rule allows that, in certain circumstances, bail may be set and other conditions imposed to ensure the appearance of the witness.
Rule 3:26-4(g) Ten Percent Cash Bail	This Rule provides that except in first or second degree cases and certain crimes or offenses involving domestic violence as set forth in N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12 and unless the order setting bail specifies to the contrary, bail may be satisfied by the deposit in court of cash in the amount of ten percent of the bail fixed and the defendant's execution of a recognizance for the remaining 90%. No surety shall be required unless the court fixing bail specifically so orders. See N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12 below for crimes/offenses which prohibit a 10% cash bail.

Rule 3:26-8(a-g) Bail Sufficiency; Source Hearing (See also 2A:162-13 below)	This Rule provides that the State may request either orally or in writing, at any time prior to the commencement of trial, a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A: 162-13. The State shall provide notice to the defendant’s counsel, or to the defendant if he or she is unrepresented at the time the request is made. The court shall grant the State’s request for a hearing if the defendant is charged with a crime enumerated in paragraph (a) of N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12. If the defendant is not charged with a crime enumerated in paragraph (a) in N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12, the State must demonstrate a reasonable and well-grounded basis to warrant an inquiry by the court regarding: (1) the reliability of the obligor or person posting cash bail, the value and sufficiency of any security offered, the relationship of the obligor or person posting cash bail to the defendant, and the defendant’s interest in ensuring bail is not forfeited, or (2) whether the funds used to post the cash bail or secure the bail bond were acquired as a result of criminal or unlawful conduct. If the court grants the State’s request for a hearing as to a defendant who is not charged with a crime enumerated in paragraph (a) of N.J.S.A. 162-12, the court shall set forth on the record and in the bail order the reasons for granting the request. The court shall conduct a hearing within three (3) business days after monetary bail is posted or proffered if the defendant is incarcerated, or within a reasonable period of time after granting the request if the defendant has been released on bail. This Rule still applies to defendants subject to the Bail Schedules, except as to the reference to pretrial release conditions. Pretrial release conditions apply to eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law.
N.J.S.A. 2C:6-1 Bail for Persons Accused of Minor Offenses	This Statute provides that the court shall not require a bail in excess of $2,500 for a person charged with a fourth degree crime or disorderly persons offense or petty disorderly persons offense unless the court finds that the person presents a serious threat to the physical safety of potential evidence or of persons involved in circumstances surrounding the alleged offense; or unless the court finds that bail of that nature will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. The statute provides that the judge, for good cause shown, may impose bail in excess of $2,500 but the reasons must be set forth on the record. But see State v. Steele, 430 N.J. Super. 24 (App. Div. 2013), which prohibits the consideration of danger as a factor when setting the monetary amount of bail. Danger may be considered when setting forth other conditions of bail, for example, no victim contact. Note – the New Jersey Supreme Court granted certification on this case on May 23, 2013, 213 N.J. 569 (2013), but subsequently dismissed the appeal, 223 N.J. 284 (2014).
N.J.S.A. 2C:14-12 (Nicole's Law) Conditions Placed Upon Release of Certain Defendants	This Statute provides that when a defendant charged with a sex offense, as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:7-2, is released from custody before trial on bail or personal recognizance, the court authorizing the release may issue a written restraining order prohibiting the defendant from having any contact with the victim including, but not limited to, restraining the defendant from entering the victim’s residence, place of employment or business, or school, or from harassing or stalking the victim or the victim’s relatives.
N.J.S.A. 2C:25-26(d)(e); 2C:29-9b; 2C:25-31a Bail in Domestic Violence Cases	N.J.S.A. 2C:25-26d provides that when setting bail in a domestic violence case, the court must conduct a search of the Domestic Violence Central Registry. N.J.S.A. 2C:25-26e provides that once bail is set it shall not be reduced without notice to the county prosecutor and victim. It also provides that bail shall not be reduced by a judge other than the judge who originally ordered bail, unless the reasons for the original bail are available to the judge who reduces the bail and are set forth on the record. N.J.S.A. 2C:25-31 provides that when a defendant is arrested on a charge of contempt of a domestic violence restraining order, the law enforcement officer shall conduct a search of the Domestic Violence Central Registry. Note: Defendants arrested on or after January 1, 2017 on complaints-warrants are eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law. The Bail Schedules will not apply to those defendants even though monetary bail may be considered. These Statutes are referenced herein because they refer to bail reduction hearings and the procedures that judges must follow.
N.J.S.A. 2C:35-5.7 Drug Offender Restraining Order Act	This Statute provides that when a person is charged with any of the designated offenses in 2C:35-5.6c, and the person is released from custody on bail or recognizance, or is otherwise issued a summons, the court may, upon application of a law enforcement officer or prosecuting attorney, issue a written restraining order prohibiting the person from entering the designated area surrounding the place of the alleged offense. This order shall provide a prohibition on the person from entering an area up to 500 feet surrounding the place unless the court rules that a different buffer zone would better effectuate the purposes of this Act. The court has discretion to permit the person to enter the area during specified times for specified purposes, such as attending school during regular school hours.

N.J.S.A. 2A:160-(1-25) Uniform Criminal Extradition Act - Extradition Proceeding	The court may withhold bail or grant bail to a fugitive charged in another state. If the person is charged with a crime punishable by death or life imprisonment in that other jurisdiction these are non-bailable offenses under the Uniform Criminal Extradition Law. See R. 3:26-1(d) and R. 3:26-2(a) above.
N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12 Crimes with Bail Restrictions (See next box for bail restrictions on Domestic Violence Contempts)	Bail for listed offenses may only be posted by full cash, or a surety bond executed by an authorized corporation under Chapter 31 of Title 17 of the Revised Statutes, or a bail bond secured by real property situated in New Jersey with an unencumbered equity equal to the amount of bail undertaken plus $20,000. "Crimes with bail restrictions" means a crime of the first or second degree charged under any of the following sections: murder, manslaughter, kidnapping, sexual assault, robbery, carjacking, arson and related offenses, causing or risking widespread injury or damage, burglary, theft by extortion, endangering the welfare of children, resisting arrest, eluding officer, escape, corrupting or influencing a jury, possession of weapons for unlawful purposes, weapons training for illegal activities, soliciting or recruiting gang members, and human trafficking. The statute also further defines "Crimes with bail restrictions" as any first or second degree drug-related crimes under Chapter 35 of Title 2C of the New Jersey statutes and any first or second degree racketeering crimes under Chapter 41 of Title 2C. When setting bail on any of these offenses: "...There shall be a presumption in favor of the court designating the posting of full United States currency cash bail to the exclusion of other forms of bail when a defendant is charged with an offense as set forth in subsection (a) of the this section and: (1) Has two other indictable offenses pending at the time of the arrest; or (2) Has two prior convictions for a first or second degree crime or for a violation of section 1 of P.L. 1987, c. 101 (2C:35-7) in any combination thereof; or (3) Has one prior conviction for murder, aggravated manslaughter, aggravated sexual assault, kidnapping, or bail jumping; or (4) Was on parole at the time of the arrest, unless the court finds that another form of bail authorized in subsection (b) of this section will ensure the defendant's presence in court when required." The Statute, in section (e), does give the judge the discretion to impose an R.O.R. bail "when the court determines that such person is deserving." Note: This Statute has not been amended and applies to both defendants arrested prior to January 1, 2017 and also to eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law where monetary bail is set by the judge as a condition of pretrial release. Hence, the Statute applies when setting monetary bail on or after January 1, 2017 but the advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules do not apply to eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law.
N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12 Crimes with Bail Restrictions - Domestic Violence Cases	No 10% bail for any crime or offense involving domestic violence, as defined in 2C:25-19, where the defendant was already subject to a temporary or permanent restraining order, pursuant to 2C:25-17, and is charged with a crime committed against a person protected under the order or where the defendant is charged with contempt pursuant to 2C:29-9. There is a presumption of full cash bail under some specific circumstances. This presumption exists, unless the court finds on the record that another form of bail authorized in subsection (b), surety bond or property bond, will ensure the defendant's presence in court when required, if the actor was already subject to a temporary or permanent restraining order, pursuant to 2C:25-17, and is charged with a crime committed against a person protected under that order, including a charge of contempt pursuant to 2C:29-9; and either (a) is charged with the commission of a domestic violence crime that resulted in serious bodily injury to the victim; or (b) has at least one prior conviction for a crime or offense involving domestic violence against the same victim or has previously violated a final restraining order protecting the same victim. Section (e), does give the judge the discretion to impose an R.O.R. bail "when the court determines that such person is deserving." Note: This Statute has not been amended and applies to both defendants arrested prior to January 1, 2017 and also to eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law where monetary bail is set by the judge as a condition of pretrial release. Hence, the Statute applies when setting monetary bail on or after January 1, 2017 but the advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules do not apply.

N.J.S.A. 2A:162-13 Bail Sufficiency; Source Hearing (See also Rule 3:26-8(a-g) above)	Effective June 1, 2007, when a person charged with a crime with bail restrictions posts cash bail or secures a bail bond, the person, no later than the time of posting bail or proffering the surety or bail bond, shall provide to the prosecutor, on a form promulgated by the Attorney General, relevant information under penalty of perjury about the obligor, indemnifier or person posting cash bail, the security offered, and the source of any money or property used to post the cash bail or secure the surety or bail bond, as the case may be. This required information shall include, but not be limited to, the defendant's employment history, the names and addresses of any persons who contributed money or pledged security for the proffered bail or toward a surety bond, the amount, nature and timing of such contributions, and the relationship to the defendant of any such persons contributing resources. Bail may not be accepted from a person subject to the requirements of this subsection until the prosecutor is provided the completed form required by this subsection. When a person charged with an offense posts cash bail or secures a bail bond in any amount, the court may, upon the request of the prosecutor, conduct an inquiry to determine the reliability of the obligor or person posting cash bail, the value and sufficiency of any security offered, the relationship of the obligor or person posting cash bail to the defendant and the defendant's interest in ensuring that the bail is not forfeited, and whether the funds used to post the cash bail or secure the bail bond were acquired as a result of criminal or unlawful conduct. When the offense charged against such person is a crime with bail restrictions, the court shall, upon the request of the prosecutor, conduct an inquiry. The court may examine, under oath or otherwise, any person who may possess relevant information, and may inquire into any matter appropriate to its determination. The court shall issue an order either approving or disapproving the bail. The court shall not issue an order approving the bail unless it is satisfied that the evidence adduced in the inquiry establishes the reliability of the source of the funds used to post bail or security offered, that the relationship of the obligor or person posting cash bail is sufficient to ensure the defendant's presence in court when required, and that the funds used to post cash bail or secure a bail bond were not acquired as a result of criminal or unlawful conduct.
N.J.S.A. 2A:162-14 Procedures	This Statute, effective on January 9, 2004, provides that the inquiry as authorized in N.J.S.A. 2A:162-13 be governed by Rules adopted by the New Jersey Supreme Court. (See Rule 3:26-8 above, which established the procedures.)

DISORDERLY PERSONS AND PETTY DISORDERLY PERSONS OFFENSES

Rule	Description
N.J.S.A. 2C:6-1 Bail for Persons Accused of Minor Offenses	This Statute provides that the court shall not require a bail in excess of $2,500 for a person charged with a fourth degree crime or disorderly persons offense or petty disorderly persons offense unless the court finds that the person presents a serious threat to the physical safety of potential evidence or of persons involved in circumstances surrounding the alleged offense; or unless the court finds that bail of that nature will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. The statute provides that the judge, for good cause shown, may impose bail in excess of $2,500 but the reasons must be set forth on the record. But see State v. Steele, 430 N.J. Super. 24 (App. Div. 2013), which prohibits the consideration of danger as a factor when setting the monetary amount of bail. Danger may be considered when setting forth other conditions of bail, for example, no victim contact. Note – the New Jersey Supreme Court granted certification on this case on May 23, 2013, 213 N.J. 569 (2013), but subsequently dismissed the appeal, 223 N.J. 284 (2014).
Rule 7:3-1 Procedure After Arrest	This Rule provides for a custodial arrest without a warrant that: (c)(3) Summons. If a complaint-summons form (CDR-1 or Special Form of Complaint and Summons) has been prepared, or if a judicial officer has determined that a summons shall issue, the summons shall be served and the defendant shall be released after completion of post-arrest identification procedures required by law and pursuant to R. 7:2-2(i). (d) Non-Custodial Arrest. A law enforcement officer charging any offense may personally serve a complaint-summons (Special Form of Complaint and Summons) at the scene of the arrest without taking the defendant into custody. (e) Arrest Following Bench Warrant. If a defendant is arrested on a bench warrant on an initial summons and monetary bail was not set at warrant issuance, a bail determination or release on personal recognizance must occur without unnecessary delay and no later than 12 hours after arrest. If the defendant is unable to post bail, the court shall review that bail promptly. The defendant may file an application with the court seeking a bail reduction; such bail reduction motion shall be heard in an expedited manner. Note: This Rule applies to defendants arrested on or after January 1, 2017 for a disorderly person offense or petty disorderly persons offense and who are initially released on a complaint-summons. If the defendant later fails to appear in court, monetary bail may be set either upon issuance of the bench warrant or when the defendant is rearrested. The advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will apply when setting monetary bail.

DISORDERLY PERSONS AND PETTY DISORDERLY PERSONS OFFENSES

Rule	Description
Rule 7:4-1 Right to Pretrial Release (Includes Option of R.O.R. Bail for certain defendants)	This Rule provides that: (a) Defendants Charged on Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) with Disorderly Persons Offenses. Except as otherwise provided by R. 3:4A (pertaining to preventative detention), defendants charged with a disorderly persons offense on an initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) shall be released before conviction on the least restrictive non-monetary conditions that, in the judgment of the court, will reasonably ensure their presence in court when required, the protection of the safety of any other person or the community, and that the eligible defendant will not obstruct or attempt to obstruct the criminal justice process, pursuant to R. 3:26-1(a)(1). In accordance with Part III, monetary bail may be set for a defendant arrested on a disorderly persons offense on an initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) only when it is determined that no other conditions of release will reasonably assure the eligible defendant's appearance in court when required. For these defendants the court shall make a pretrial release determination no later than 48 hours after a defendant's commitment to the county jail; the court shall consider the Pretrial Services Program's risk assessment and recommendations on conditions of release before making a release decision. (b) All Other Defendants. All defendants other than those set forth in paragraph (a) shall have a right to bail before conviction on such terms as, in the judgment of court, will insure the defendant's presence when required, having regard for the defendant's background, residence, employment and family status and, particularly, the general policy against unnecessary sureties and detention; in its discretion, the court may order defendant's release on defendant's own recognizance and may impose terms or conditions appropriate to such release. All other defendants include: (i) those charged on an initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) with a petty disorderly persons offense or other non-disorderly persons offense within the jurisdiction of the municipal court, and (ii) all defendants brought before the court on a bench warrant for failure to appear or other violation, including defendants initially charged on a Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) and those initially charged on a summons. Defendants issued a bench warrant who were charged with a disorderly persons offense on an initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) may also be subject to reconsideration of conditions of release pursuant to Rule 7:4-9. Note: Defendants arrested on or after January 1, 2017 on a complaint-warrant for a disorderly persons offense are eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law. The advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will not apply if monetary bail is set as a condition of pretrial release. Includes the option of R.O.R. Defendants arrested on petty disorderly persons offenses on or after January 1, 2017, whether on a complaint-warrant or a complaint-summons are not eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law. If monetary bail is set on a complaint-warrant for a petty disorderly persons offense, the advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will apply. Includes option of R.O.R.
Rule 7:4-2 Authority to Set Bail or Conditions of Pretrial Release	This Rule provides that initial conditions of pre-trial release on an initial disorderly persons charge on a Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) may be set by a judge designated by the Chief Justice, pursuant to Rule 3:26 as part of a first appearance at a centralized location, pursuant to R. 3:4-2. Setting bail for bench warrants or for a Complaint-warrant (CDR-2) in which the most serious charge is a petty disorderly persons offense or other non-disorderly persons offense within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Court may be done by a judge, sitting regularly in or as acting as temporary judge of the jurisdiction in which the offense was committed or by a vicinage Presiding Judge of the Municipal Courts, or as authorized by any other rule of court. In the absence of the Judge, and to the extent consistent with N.J.S.A. 2B:12-21 and R. 1:41-3(f), a duly authorized municipal court administrator or deputy court administrator may set bail on defendants issued a bench warrant or a Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) in which the most serious charge is a petty disorderly persons offense or other non-disorderly persons offense within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Court. The authority of the municipal court administrator, deputy court administrator, or other authorized person shall be exercised "only in accordance with the bail schedules promulgated by the Administrative Office of the Courts or the municipal court judge.

DISORDERLY PERSONS AND PETTY DISORDERLY PERSONS OFFENSES

Rule	Description
Rule 7:4-3(g) Ten Percent Cash Bail	This Rule provides that “Unless otherwise specified in the order setting the bail, bail may be satisfied by the deposit in court or cash in the amount of ten percent of the amount fixed together with the defendant’s executed recognizance for the remaining ninety percent. No surety shall be required, unless specifically ordered by the court. See N.J.S.A. 2A:162-12 above, regarding bail restrictions for domestic violence contempts.
Rule 7:4-8 Bail After Conviction	This Rule provides that when a sentence has been imposed and an appeal from the judgment of conviction has been taken, the trial judge may admit the appellant to bail within 20 days from the date of conviction or sentence, whichever occurs later. Bail after conviction may be imposed only if the trial judge has significant reservations about the appellant’s willingness to appear before the appellate court.
Rule 7:4-9 Changes in Conditions of Release for Defendants Charged on an Initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) on Disorderly Persons Offenses	This Rule provides: Changes in Conditions of Release for Defendants Charged on an Initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) on Disorderly Persons Offenses (a) Monetary Bail Reductions. If a defendant is unable to post monetary bail, the defendant shall have the monetary bail reviewed promptly and may file an application with the court seeking a monetary bail reduction which shall be heard in an expedited manner by a court with jurisdiction over the matter. (b) Review of Conditions of Release. For defendants charged with a disorderly persons offense on an initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) and released pretrial, a judge with jurisdiction over the matter may review the conditions of release on his or her own motion, or upon motion by the prosecutor or the defendant, alleging that there has been a material change in circumstance that necessitates a change in conditions. Upon a finding that there has been a material change in circumstance that necessitates a change in conditions, the judge may set new conditions of release. (c) Violations of Conditions of Release. A judge may impose new conditions of release, including monetary bail, when a defendant charged with a disorderly persons offense and released on an initial Complaint-Warrant (CDR-2) violates a restraining order or condition of release. These conditions should be the least restrictive condition or combination of conditions that the court determines will reasonably assure the eligible defendant’s appearance in court when required, protect the safety of any other person or the community, or reasonably assure that the eligible defendant will not obstruct or attempt to obstruct the criminal justice process. (d) Motions for Pretrial Detention. All prosecutor motions for pretrial detention must be made in Superior Court, in accordance with Rule 3:4A. Note: This Rule applies to eligible defendants who are arrested on disorderly persons offenses on or after January 1, 2017 and who are charged on a complaint-warrant. Since these are eligible defendants under the Criminal Justice Reform Law, the advisory monetary ranges in the Bail Schedules will not apply.
