

Reporting Judges' Vacation Schedules

Directive #1-98
(Amending Directive #1-82)
Issued by:

January 22, 1998

James J. Ciancia, J.A.D.
Acting Administrative Director

Directive #1-82, concerning the schedule for the court year and judges' vacation, calls for Assignment Judges to file vicinage vacation schedules for their judges with the Administrative Director. Effective immediately, this requirement is eliminated. Such scheduling is both the province and the responsibility of the Assignment Judge and does not require the oversight of the Administrative Director.

EDITOR'S NOTE

This directive abolishes the requirement contained in Directive #1-82 that requires Assignment Judges to inform the Administrative Director of their judges' vacation schedules.
