	:	CASE MANAGEMENT
	:	ORDER NO. 1

It appearing that all Risperdal, Seroquel and Zyprexa cases are centralized for management in Middlesex County by Order of the Supreme Court of New Jersey, dated September 11, 2006;

And it further appearing that an equitable, economic and expedient resolution of these cases require an orderly management plan for this litigation; and therefore

IT IS ON THIS 28th day of SEPTEMBER, 2006, ORDERED as follows:

I. GENERAL APPLICABILITY

1. This Order applies to all cases filed in or transferred to Middlesex County pursuant to the Supreme Court Order of September 11, 2006. The cases are centralized to avoid duplication and to prevent conflicts. These actions are not consolidated. Each case will retain its own docket number.
2. The civil “Best Practices” system for Mass Tort track IV will govern these cases.
3. All orders by transferor Courts imposing dates for pleadings or discovery are vacated.
4. Orders and notices common to the entire litigation may be available on the Judiciary web page for Mass Tort Litigation, which may be accessed at www.judiciary.state.nj.us/mass-tort/index.htm.

II. CAPTIONS, PLEADINGS & SERVICE

1. All parties are to file individual complaints at Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Patterson Street, Mass Tort, Tower Wing 2nd Floor, New Brunswick, New Jersey 08903. The Case Information Statement accompanying the pleadings shall identify the case code as 274.
2. Each complaint is limited to one plaintiff or a related household of plaintiffs. No plaintiff may use the caption “In Re Risperdal/Seroquel/Zyprexa Litigation” on an individual complaint.

3. All pleadings, motion papers, and correspondence shall add the letters MT after the docket number indicating Mass Tort and under the caption Civil Action shall include the title of this litigation, "In Re Risperdal/Seroquel/Zyprexa Litigation." All pleadings shall include the case code 274.
4. Middlesex County shall maintain a master docket and case file captioned "In Re Risperdal/Seroquel/Zyprexa Litigation." All Case Management Orders, Scheduling Orders, or other documents filed therein are deemed filed and docketed in each individual case.

III. PRELIMINARY MATTERS

1. Each party shall preserve all documents and other records containing information potentially relevant to this litigation. Each party shall also preserve any physical evidence or potential evidence and shall not conduct any tests on physical evidence without notifying opposing counsel. Unless opposing counsel stipulate to the test, no test shall be conducted without obtaining the Court's permission.
2. Computerized data shall not be erased under existing programs until opposing counsel have been notified of all existing programs and a court order has been obtained.

IV. ATTORNEYS

1. Counsel are expected to act in a courteous, professional manner during the conduct of this litigation. Each attorney should make a good faith effort to resolve disputes out of Court and in an expeditious manner. Counsel must attempt to resolve motions before any matter is submitted to the Court and must certify to that attempt.
2. Counsel for plaintiff(s) shall provide to the Court an official service list updated every 30 days. The list must contain the case names, docket numbers and the dates entered on the first page. For each party, counsel must be identified by name, firm name, address, telephone number, fax number and e-mail address. From these lists, the Court will maintain on the mass tort website an official counsel list for purposes of facilitating service.
3. Counsel lists are not to be appended to any Court submission. The counsel list shall be incorporated by reference on all certificates of service, all pleadings, all motions, all correspondence. The reference should be to all counsel on the list and identify by date the last official service list for the cases.
4. Multiple Counsel: Where a party is represented by more than one counsel of record, that party shall designate the name and address of the single New Jersey counsel to be the recipient of all notices, communications and pleadings. The designated New Jersey counsel will be responsible for notifying co-counsel of all such matters.

V. CONFERENCE PROCEDURES

1. The Court may conduct, and the parties may request, periodic status and scheduling conferences to assess the progress regarding the matters scheduled herein. Reasonable notice of all such conferences will be provided to all counsel of record.
2. Transcripts: All case management conferences or parts thereof will be recorded. Any party desiring a transcript may order one directly from the Middlesex County Transcription Department. Counsel may also provide a private reporter. In any proceeding in which a transcript is ordered, either from the Court or a private reporter, counsel shall ensure that one copy of the transcript is also sent to the Court.
3. Appearances: Counsel appearing at each case management conference must sign an attendance sheet, be familiar with the issues to be discussed and not schedule other matters for the date of the conference.
4. Compliance: All counsel are required to comply with the provisions of each case management order whether or not he or she was in attendance at the conference giving rise to the Order.

VI. MOTIONS

1. Filing Requirement: All motions are to be filed with the Mass Tort Clerk's Office, Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Patterson Street, Tower Wing 2nd Floor, New Brunswick, New Jersey 08903. All motion papers must include a return date, scheduled on a non-motion Friday. Courtesy copies for the Judge are not required.
2. Any motion that is applicable to more than one case shall be noted on the first page by listing each docket number or if all, the notation "applicable to all cases," with a filing fee for each docket.
3. Copies: Counsel shall file an original and one copy of each Notice of Motion, supporting documents and proposed form of Order with the Mass Tort Team, along with a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage for the return of the signed Order. One additional copy of these papers along with a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage may be supplied if a request is made for a return of that copy marked "filed".
4. Form of orders: A proposed form of Order shall be submitted for all motions and a stamped self-addressed envelope must be included.
5. Captions: Captions on motions are the same as on all other pleadings and require the MT for Mass Tort after the docket number, the designation "In Re Risperdal/Seroquel/Zyprexa Litigation," and case code 274.

6. Motions: No summary judgment motions shall be filed before discovery is complete. All motions in limine, motions for Frye/Daubert, Perez or Lopez hearings shall be scheduled by the Court during pre-trial management conferences.
7. Oral Argument: Oral argument shall be held for discovery motions unless otherwise directed by the Court.
8. Pro Hac Vice Admissions:

Counsel shall use the pro hac vice application form posted on the judiciary's website at www.judiciary.state.nj.us/mass-tort/index.htm.

Any attorney seeking admission pro hac vice shall make a formal motion for admission returnable before Judge Garruto on a non-motion Friday. A motion must be made on the applicant's behalf by a fully licensed member of the New Jersey Bar, in each individual docket, utilizing the approved form of motion, along with supporting Certification and/or Affidavit. Motions for the admission of counsel pro hac vice shall be decided on the papers submitted unless opposition to the motion is filed or the court otherwise directs. A motion filing fee shall be paid for each individual docket.

Required Representations for Pro Hac Vice Admission

The attorney seeking admission pro hac vice must warrant the representations set forth below to be true:

- a) Counsel seeking pro hac vice admission has a long-standing relationship with the client on whose behalf they wish to appear and the client has requested their participation in the litigation as attorneys pro hac vice.
- b) Counsel seeking pro hac vice admission is associated with New Jersey counsel of record.
- c) Counsel seeking pro hac vice admission has reviewed the New Jersey Rules of Court and agrees to comply with said Rules, including all disciplinary rules.
- d) Counsel seeking pro hac vice admission represent they are a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of the state where counsel practices, that no disciplinary proceedings are pending against them in any jurisdiction and no discipline has previously been imposed against them in any jurisdiction, and that counsel understand their continuing obligation to advise the court of any disciplinary proceedings.
- e) Counsel representing plaintiffs who seek pro hac vice admission must certify that all retainer agreements with clients in the subject litigation do not, and in the future will not, violate any of the contingency fee provisions found in the Rules Governing the Courts of New Jersey for the current year.

- f) Counsel seeking pro hac vice admission to represent a corporate defendant must certify as to his or her prior involvement with that corporation or its related entities, including the capacity in which he or she was involved. Further, the attorney must include in the Affidavit a statement of his or her good faith belief that he or she was not involved with policy or management decisions which would require him or her to be called as a witness in any matter before the Court.

Conditions of Pro Hac Vice Admission

The following conditions shall apply to the admission pro hac vice of any attorney in these matters:

- a) Counsel admitted pro hac vice shall abide by the New Jersey Rules of Court, including all disciplinary rules of the Courts of the State of New Jersey, Rule 1:20-1(b), Rule 1:28-2, and Rule 1:28 B-1(e).
- b) Counsel admitted pro hac vice shall consent to the appointment of the Clerk of the Supreme Court of New Jersey as an agent upon whom service of process may be made for all actions against their firm that may arise out of their participation in this matter.
- c) Pro hac vice counsel must be accompanied by a member of the New Jersey Bar at all proceedings.
- d) Discovery, motions, trial and any other court proceedings will not be adjourned due to the inability of pro hac vice counsel to be in attendance.
- e) Counsel admitted pro hac vice shall not be designated as trial counsel pursuant to Rule 4:25-4.
- f) All pleadings, briefs and other papers filed with the court shall be signed by an attorney of record authorized to practice in this State, who shall be held responsible for them, the conduct of the cause and the admitted attorney.
- g) Counsel admitted pro hac vice must notify the Court immediately of any matter affecting their standing at the Bar of any State in which they are admitted or of any other jurisdiction.
- h) Counsel admitted pro hac vice must within ten (10) days of the entry of the order for admission, pay the fees required by Rule 1:20-1(b), Rule 1:28-2 and Rule 1:28 B-1(e) and submit affidavits of compliance within fifteen (15) days thereafter. During the pendency of these matters counsel admitted pro hac vice shall continue to comply with Rules 1:20-1(b), 1:28-2 and 1:28 B-1(e) on an annual basis and shall submit affidavits of compliance within thirty (30) days of such compliance.

- i) Any admission pro hac vice shall be automatically terminated for failure to make the required annual payment to the Ethics Financial Committee, the New Jersey Lawyer's Fund for Client Protection, and the Lawyers Assistance Fund upon appropriate notification from the Administrative Office of the Courts that the annual payment has not been made. Proof of such payment, after filing proof of the initial payment, shall be made no later than February 1 of each year.
- j) Noncompliance with any of the requirements of pro hac vice admission shall constitute grounds for removal.
- k) A copy of the order granting pro hac vice admission shall be served on all parties within seven (7) days of its entry.
