

RULE 4:12. Persons Before Whom Depositions May Be Taken; Authority

4:12-1. Within the State

Within this State, depositions shall be taken before a person authorized by the laws of this State to administer oaths.

Note: Source-R.R. 4:18-1.

4:12-2. Without the State but Within the United States

Outside this State but within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before a person authorized to administer oaths by the laws of this State, of the United States or of the place where the examination is held.

Note: Source-R.R. 4:18-2.

4:12-3. In Foreign Countries

Unless an international treaty or convention otherwise requires, in a foreign country depositions shall be taken (a) on notice before a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or (b) before such person or officer as may be appointed by commission or under letters rogatory. A commission or letters rogatory shall be issued on application and notice, and on such terms and with such directions as are appropriate. Officers may be designated in notices or commissions either by name or descriptive title and letters rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority in (here name the country)".
