

Complaint

Law enforcement issues a summons on their own or requests that the court issue a warrant.

Summons Issued

The defendant is not subject to Criminal Justice Reform.

Warrant Issued

The defendant is arrested and transported to county jail. The defendant is subject to Criminal Justice Reform.

Public Safety Assessment

Pretrial services staff prepare a release recommendation to the court based on a Public Safety Assessment (PSA) and other factors.

First Appearance Hearing

A first appearance hearing is held within 24 to 48 hours of a defendant being taken to a county jail. The judge considers the pretrial services recommendation as well as arguments from the prosecutor and defense attorney and can either release the defendant on their own recognizance or release the defendant with conditions.

Motion for Detention

The prosecutor could file a motion for detention at this time.

Detention Hearing

At the detention hearing, the prosecutor can provide evidence to argue that the defendant should be detained in jail. The judge will decide whether to detain or release the defendant, based on the pretrial services recommendation, statutory factors and arguments of the prosecutor and defense attorney.

Defendant Released

Defendant is given a date to appear in court and is not monitored by pretrial services.

Defendant Released with Conditions

Defendant is released and monitored by pretrial services.

Defendant Detained

Defendant remains in jail while pending trial, subject to speedy trial guidelines.