How to Use Help

The Foreclosure Case Management help system is designed to assist users with navigating the application. The help system will cover how to manage the electronically filed documents and navigate the case jacket. The help system is web-based and can be accessed while logged into the eCourts application.

1. Help can be accessed by the clicking the link stationed in the top right hand corner of each screen.

2. The Help section will explain the various buttons and links populating each screen, and will also explain the expected actions anticipated for each screen.

Introduction

eCourts is a web based application that is designed to allow attorneys in good standing to electronically file documents to the courts. As documents are filed, they will automatically be added to an electronic case jacket, which can be viewed by the attorney and court staff.

HOME

Use the eCourts URL to log into eCourts, or log in by accessing NJCourtsonline.com> eCourts> eCourts Attorney Login.

The screenshot shows the New Jersey Courts website. The header includes the logo and tagline 'Independence • Integrity • Fairness • Quality Service'. The navigation menu is located below the header. The main content area features a message about a filtered web page and a section for 'Women's History Month 2016'. The sidebar on the right contains various links and services, with 'eCourts' highlighted by a red box.

The screenshot shows the New Jersey Courts eCourts website. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for Home, Courts, Forms, General Information, Legal, News & Publications, Online Resources, Opinions, Programs & Services, Self-Help Center, and Search. The main header features the New Jersey Courts logo and the eCourts logo. Below the header, there are two quotes from court officials: Chief Justice Stuart Rabner and Judge Glenn A. Grant. A 'Related Links' sidebar on the right contains a list of links, with 'eCourts Attorney Login' highlighted in a red box. Other links include 'eCourts Attorney Access Request Form', 'eCourts Non-Attorney Login', 'eCourts Non-Attorney Access Request Form', 'Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)', and 'Court Rule 1:32-2A. Electronic Court Systems, Electronic Records, Electronic Signatures'. Below the sidebar, there is a 'Notices to the Bar' section with links for 'Expansion of eCourts Criminal to Private Bar' and 'Tax Court to Accept Electronic Filings (including Order - Rule'. The main content area also includes a 'General Information' section with links for 'Attorney Instructions' and 'Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)'. A description of eCourts is provided at the bottom left.

After the login has been completed, the user will need to acknowledge the participation agreement.

The screenshot shows the 'Initial Registration' page. It begins with a heading 'Initial Registration' and a paragraph: 'Please review the participation agreement for electronic filing in the New Jersey Trial Courts. To register, please complete the certification below, then click "Save and Continue".' Below this is a section titled 'Step 1 - Read the Participation Agreement' with the instruction: 'Please read the Terms and Conditions for eCourts Participation:'. The main content is a scrollable area titled 'TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ACCESS TO AND PARTICIPATION IN NEW JERSEY JUDICIARY ELECTRONIC APPLICATIONS'. It contains the following text: 'For the purposes of Agreement, the term "application" includes the Judiciary Electronic Filing and Imaging System (JEFIS), eCourts, Appellate eFiling (NJ eDATA), Supreme Court eFiling, and the Electronic Access Program (EAP) or other systems as designated by the Judiciary.' Below this is a section titled 'TERM/TERMINATION' with the text: 'Participation in New Jersey Judiciary Electronic User Applications begins immediately upon the completion of online registration and the designation of the user ID and initial password.' and 'Where applicable, registration constitutes the user's request for, and consent to, electronic service of court-generated documents and documents filed electronically by other parties for...'. At the bottom, there is a section titled 'Step 2 - Complete Certifications' with the instruction: 'Please complete the following.' and two checkboxes: ' I confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to abide by the terms of the user agreement above (Click here to print a copy).', and ' I agree to accept electronic service.' A 'Save and Continue' button is located at the bottom right.

After this point, the user can verify their firm information and will also be prompted to enter up to 3 Email addresses, which will receive all eCourts notifications regarding cases in which the attorney is assigned.

After clicking 'Continue' the user will be taken to the eCourts Home Page, where the appropriate Court/Division can be selected

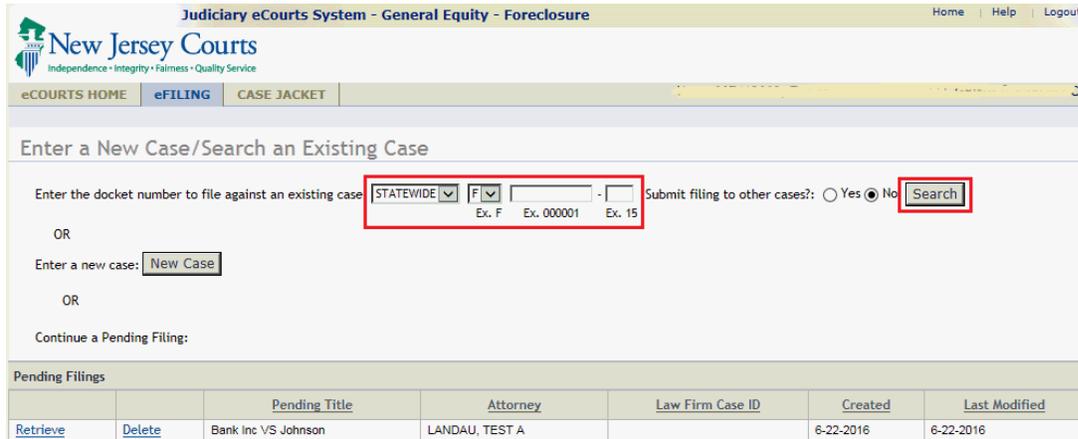

From this point, the user can select the area in which to work, by clicking the respective tab at the top of the screen.

eFiling Tab

From the eFiling Tab, the user will have the ability to perform the following functions:

- File against an existing case
- File the same document against multiple case
- File a complaint
- Retrieve a previously saved complaint

To file against an already existing case, simply enter the docket number of the case and select the 'Search' button.

Enter Case Details

This screen allows the filer to enter the case details pertaining to the complaint filing.

Note: In the event the user is retrieving a previously saved complaint, the system will return to the 'Enter Case Details' screen. The user will need to progress from that point forward.

To enter the case details follow the steps below:

The screenshot shows the 'Enter Case Details' form in the eCOURTS system. The form is divided into two sections. The top section, titled 'Enter Case Details', contains three items: a dropdown menu for 'Select Court Section' with 'Foreclosure' selected, a dropdown menu for 'Select Venue', and a certification section with two radio buttons. The first radio button is selected and is accompanied by the text: 'I certify that the matter in controversy is not the subject of any other court action or arbitration proceeding, no pending or contemplated, and that no other parties should be joined in this action.' The second radio button is unselected and is accompanied by the text: 'I certify that the matter in controversy is subject to another court action or arbitration proceeding, pending or contemplated.' The bottom section, also titled 'Enter Case Details', contains two items: a dropdown menu for 'Select Foreclosure Case Type' and a text box for 'Law Firm Case ID'. A 'Continue' button is located at the bottom right of the form. Red arrows point to the dropdown menus for 'Select Court Section', 'Select Venue', and 'Select Foreclosure Case Type'.

1. Select the Court Section.

Note: This field will be defaulted to Foreclosure

2. Select the Venue.

3. Acknowledge the Certification of No Other Action.

Note: In the event the matter in controversy is subject to another court matter, the filer will be presented with a text box where that information can be provided

The screenshot shows the 'Enter Case Details' form in the eFILING system. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'eCOURTS HOME', 'eFILING', and 'CASE JACKET'. The user information is 'User: 007412003, T. LANDAU Firm: ANSELL GRIMM & AARON PC'. The form has two sections. The first section, titled 'Enter Case Details', contains: a dropdown for 'Select Court Section' with 'Foreclosure' selected; a dropdown for 'Select Venue'; two radio buttons for certification, with the second one selected; and a text area for details if the matter is subject to other proceedings. The second section, also titled 'Enter Case Details', contains: a dropdown for 'Select Foreclosure Case Type'; and a text field for 'Law Firm Case ID'. A 'Continue' button is located at the bottom right of the form.

2. Docket Type defaults to "Foreclosure" and cannot be changed. Verify that "Foreclosure" is displayed in Docket Type field.

The screenshot shows the 'CASE JACKET' application interface. At the top right, it displays 'User: T.LANDAU Firm: DUGALIC & LANDAU PC'. Below this is a 'Search For Case' section with a dropdown menu set to 'General Equity-Foreclosure'. Underneath, there are two search options: 'Search By Docket Number' (selected) and 'Search By Party Name'. The 'Case County' is set to 'Statewide'. The 'Docket Type' dropdown is highlighted with a red box and shows 'Foreclosure'. To the right, there are input fields for 'Docket Number' and 'Docket Year', with example values '012345' and '15' respectively. A 'Search' button is located at the bottom right.

3. Enter the Docket Number and two digit Docket Year of case

This screenshot is similar to the previous one, but the 'Docket Number' and 'Docket Year' fields are now populated with the values '337' and '16' respectively. These two fields are enclosed in a red rectangular box. The 'Search' button remains at the bottom right.

4. Click on the Search button

This screenshot shows the same form as the previous one, but with a red arrow pointing directly to the 'Search' button at the bottom right, indicating the next step in the process.

The system will then display the Case Jacket for the docket number that was entered. View Case Jacket help can be found here.
