

FAQ

When do the new guidelines go into effect?

The portion of the guidelines requiring a signed agreement to use electronic devices in the courtroom has not yet gone into effect. An effective date will be announced well in advance of this requirement being implemented.

The portion of the guidelines requiring media to get permission to photograph, record or broadcast a specific court proceeding has been in place for many years under the former guidelines that were implemented in 2003.

How do I go about seeking permission to photograph, record, or broadcast a court proceeding?

A standard form is available here.

Each courthouse has a specific representative who manages these requests. If you are unsure about where to submit a request, call the courthouse for more information. The phone numbers are at njcourts.com/general information/ directory of judges and staff/ assignment judges and trial court administrators.
