

Middlesex Vicinage - Teleconferencing

All Middlesex Vicinage courtrooms have access to conference phones. These phones will allow a remote participant to be heard and to hear the proceedings in the court. Arrangements must be made with the court prior to the event and the court will provide a courtroom specific call-in number that will be used for the teleconference.