

NOTICE TO THE BAR

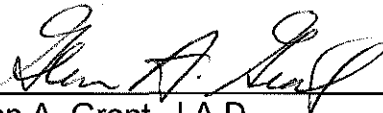

Family Part Non-Dissolution Complaint and Complex Track Procedures; Supplemental Form for Attorneys

This Notice concerns the court rule amendments that were effective September 1, 2015 relating to Family Part non-dissolution matters.

New paragraph (i) of R. 5:4-2, entitled "Complaint in Non-Dissolution Matters," was adopted to permit attorneys to file a non-conforming complaint, rather than a form complaint, to initiate a non-dissolution action. If an attorney elects to file a non-conforming complaint, that complaint must be accompanied by the attached completed supplemental form for attorneys.

New paragraph (j) of R. 5:4-2, entitled "Designation of Complex Non-Dissolution Matters," was adopted to establish a complex track for non-dissolution matters. Any party or attorney may request a complex track assignment in writing either at the time of the filing of the complaint or prior to the first hearing. The appended supplemental form for attorneys includes a checkbox for this request.

New paragraph (c) of R. 5:5-7, entitled "Non-Dissolution Actions," was adopted to address the case management procedure of complex non-dissolution matters. The complex track is reserved for only exceptional cases that cannot be heard summarily. In addition to R. 5:4-2(j), which states that a party or attorney may request a case to be designated as complex early in the litigation, the court also may make such a determination without application from the parties. If the court considers a non-dissolution matter to be complex at the first hearing, an initial case management conference shall be held at that time. A case management order shall be issued detailing the reasons that the case is complex, and include discovery schedules, pendente lite reliefs, scheduling mediation (if appropriate) and a fixed trial date.
