Ocean Vicinage to Hold Foreclosure Seminar

Toms River, NJ – Superior Court of New Jersey, Ocean Vicinage, will hold a free Foreclosure Seminar on Monday, Sept. 28 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in Mancini Hall at the Toms River Branch of the Ocean County Library, 101 Washington Street, Toms River.

Judiciary staff, representatives from Ocean-Monmouth Legal Services, a certified Housing and Urban Development (HUD) counselor and a regional attorney who represents clients on an income-eligibility basis, will conduct the seminar.

The seminar is an opportunity for members of the public to get information about the foreclosure process and the services available to them. Topics will include the court's processes and procedures, the foreclosure mediation program, foreclosure prevention and intervention resources and the effect of bankruptcy on a residential mortgage. Packets of information will be available to the attendees and a question and answer period will follow the presentation.

A representative from the Puerto Rican Action Board will be present to assist Spanish-speaking attendees. No advance registration is required.

For more event information, please call Ann Marie Fleury, Esq., Ombudsman, at 732-288-7212.
