Essex Vicinage to Hold Court and Community Information Fair

Newark—New Jersey Superior Court Essex Vicinage will hold an information fair on Saturday, Nov. 6. The fair will take place from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the East Orange Public Library, 21 S. Arlington Ave., 2nd floor.

Court representatives will answer questions about the court's services, resources and procedures and will distribute Judiciary publications addressing topics such as landlord/tenant cases, child support, small claims and expungements.

Representatives from other local organizations will offer information about legal assistance, substance abuse treatment, vocational programs, housing assistance, immigration assistance, hospital programs, mental health services and domestic violence programs. Participating organizations include the Community Health Law Project, the Essex County Division of Welfare, Essex-Newark Legal Services, East Orange General Hospital, the Essex County Division of Community Action, New Jersey Mental Health Cares, the New Jersey Sharing Network, La Casa de Don Pedro and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Essex Vicinage has organized the fair to provide the public with important information about available services offered by the court and local organizations. This event is part of the vicinage's ongoing community outreach initiatives.

The information fair is open to the public. No registration is required.
