Burlington Vicinage to Offer Free Expungement Seminar

The Burlington Vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns will host an expungement seminar on Wednesday, Nov. 14 from 4 to 5 p.m. at Burlington County Human Services, 795 Woodlane Rd., Westampton.

A criminal conviction can interfere with one's ability to obtain a job, security clearance, or even financial aid when pursuing education. An expungement is a legal remedy available for certain criminal and disorderly persons convictions that can help offenders clear their criminal records.

The seminar will provide information on the expungement process. Participants will receive a detailed overview of the application process, which court records are eligible for expungement, and the benefits of having a criminal record expunged. Forms will be available.

This is an informational session; no individual cases can be discussed or resolved.

The seminar is free and open to the public. Pre-registration is not required.
