Essex Vicinage to Hold Family Court Seminar

The Essex Vicinage will hold a family court seminar on Thursday, Feb. 20 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in Room 1073 on the 10th floor of the Wilentz Justice Complex, 212 Washington St., Newark.

Essex Vicinage has organized the seminar to provide information and answer questions about family division case types and procedures, court and agency programs and services, resources available at njcourts.com, and legal referrals.

Representatives from Essex-Newark Legal Services, Volunteer Lawyers for Justice, the Essex County Family Justice Center, Partners for Women and Justice, the Rachel Coalition, and the Superior Court will conduct the seminar. Following a panel presentation, attendees can visit information tables where presenters will be available to answer questions.

A Spanish interpreter will be available. If additional interpreting services are required, please contact the Office of the Ombudsman & Information and Community Relations Center at 973-693-5774 by Tuesday, Feb. 18.

This is an information only seminar. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved.

Registration is not required for this free seminar. Space is limited, and seating will be provided on a first come, first served basis.

A statewide calendar of public education programs can be found at njcourts.com. Click on the Self Help Center tab and look for the "Court Seminars and Public Events" link.
