Essex Vicinage to Hold Child Support Seminar

The Essex Vicinage will hold a free child support seminar on Monday, March 24 from 6 to 8 p.m. on the second floor of the East Orange Public Library, 21 S. Arlington Ave., East Orange.

Among the topics that will be discussed are filing for child support, modification, and termination of child support orders and emancipation of dependents; child support guidelines and pertinent laws; enforcement of child support orders; the role of welfare in child support cases; and obtaining information about one's case, the court, and legal resources. Following a panel presentation, attendees can visit information tables, where presenters will answer questions and materials will be available.

Representatives from Essex-Newark Legal Services, the Offices of Essex County Counsel and Child Support and Enforcement, and the Judiciary will conduct the seminar.

A Spanish interpreter will be available. If additional interpreting services are required, contact the Office of the Ombudsman & Information and Community Relations Center at 973-693-5774.

Registration is not required. Space is limited, and seating will be provided on a first come, first served basis.

The seminar was organized by the Essex Vicinage Committee on Minority Concerns and the Office of the Ombudsman.
