Passaic Vicinage Presents Seminar on Court Processes that Address Housing Issues

The Passaic Vicinage will present a seminar on housing litigation on Friday, June 6 at 3 p.m. in the Woodland Park Municipal Complex, Community Room, 7 Brophy Ln., Woodland Park.

The seminar will address two topics: landlord/tenant procedures and foreclosure mediation. The information for landlords/tenants will be about the complaint process, what happens during court proceedings and eviction procedures. The information on foreclosure will highlight the New Jersey Judiciary's Foreclosure Mediation Program and frequently asked questions on the foreclosure process.

Panelists include representatives from the Passaic Vicinage and attorneys who practice in landlord/tenant and foreclosure law.

The seminar is free and open to the public. Registration is not required. This is an informational seminar only. No individual cases can be discussed or resolved.
