Hudson Vicinage to Hold Free Expungement Clinic

The Hudson Vicinage will hold an expungement clinic on Tuesday, March 24, from 10 a.m. to noon in the Court User Resource Center, Room 102 on the first floor of the Hudson County Administration Building, 595 Newark Ave., Jersey City.

Hudson Vicinage has joined with Northeast New Jersey Legal Services' Employment Opportunity Project to provide information to the public on navigating the criminal and family records expungement process. The Employment Opportunity Project is designed to assist individuals overcome barriers to employment.

The clinic will include the types of criminal and juvenile records that can be expunged, the time requirements to be eligible for an expungement, how to prepare and file an expungement application, and what happens after an expungement is granted.

Representatives from Northeast New Jersey Legal Services, the Hudson Vicinage Criminal and Family Divisions, and the Office of the Ombudsman will be available to answer general questions. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved.

This clinic is free and open to the public. Interpreting services are available; however, advance notice and registration is required.
