Passaic Vicinage to Host Seminar on Guardianship Monitoring Program

The Passaic Vicinage will host a seminar about the Guardianship Monitoring Program on Wednesday, July 1 at 5:30 p.m. in the Jury Assembly Room on the of the Passaic County Administration Building, 401 Grand St., Paterson.

The Guardianship Monitoring Program uses trained volunteers to track guardianship cases. Volunteers ensure that the guardians adhere to the statutory and court-ordered requirements to file documents and reports and to oversee the concerns of the incapacitated individuals.

The seminar will include a panel discussion including Judge Margaret Mary McVeigh; Passaic County Surrogate Bernice Toledo; Kristi Robinson, chief civil practice liaison at the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), Susan Flynn, also from the civil practice division and Larissa Falcone, Passaic Vicinage volunteer coordinator.

Passaic Vicinage started its Guardianship Monitoring Program started in 2013. The need for volunteers has increased because of the success of the program.

Those interested in attending should contact June Zieder, ombudsman, at 973-247-8651 or at June.Zieder@judiciary.state.nj.us.

Light refreshments will be served.
