Monmouth Vicinage Family Division to Hold Seminar on Juvenile Expungement

The Family Engagement Committee of the Monmouth Vicinage Family Division has scheduled two juvenile expungement seminars.

The seminars will be held Tuesday, Oct. 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Mercy Center, 1106 Main St., Asbury Park and on Tuesday, Nov. 24 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the YMCA of Western Monmouth County, 41 Center St., Freehold.

Monmouth Vicinage has joined with Monmouth Bar Association attorneys to provide information to the public on navigating juvenile records and the expungement process.

Topics will include the types of juvenile records that can be expunged, the time requirements to be eligible for an expungement, how to prepare and file an expungement application, and what happens after an expungement is granted.

“The Monmouth Vicinage is pleased to present these seminars. They give us the opportunity to provide helpful information and resources to juveniles and families in our community,” Assignment Judge Lisa P. Thornton said.

Representatives from the Monmouth Vicinage Family Division will be available to answer general questions. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved.

This seminar is free and open to the public, but reservations are required. All juveniles must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. If language assistance is needed, notification must be made in advance. To reserve space or request interpreting services, call 732-677-4352 or email FamilyEngagement.mailbox@judiciary.state.nj.us
