Three from Union Vicinage Probation Division Honored with CPONJ Awards

Three Union Vicinage Probation Division staff are scheduled to receive awards from the Chief Probation Officers of New Jersey (CPONJ) on July 22 at a statewide recognition ceremony at the Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex, 25 Market St., Trenton.

Michael F. Jan will receive the Certificate of Meritorious Service. Jan is a court services supervisor 2. His selection is based on his contribution to providing quality customer service to internal and external clients. Jan leads by example. He is dedicated, efficient, reliable, flexible, and unfailingly punctual. He has proven to be an exemplary professional, who inspires his peers and colleagues.

Kevin Grimaldi will receive the Certificate of Outstanding Achievement. Grimaldi also serves as a court services supervisor 2. Based on his leadership, service to internal and external clients has improved tremendously. He has streamlined processes to increase efficiency across division lines. Grimaldi is a consummate professional who leads an outstanding group of employees.

Bertha Moran will receive the Career Achievement Award. Moran is a senior probation officer. Since 2002, she has served as a Union Vicinage Drug Court team member. She assists with the training of new officers. She serves as a resource for experienced staff. She works with clients through relapses, sanctions and counseling, with a focus on recovery and sobriety.

Trial Court Administrator Jim Agro said, "Assignment Judge Cassidy and I are grateful to CPONJ for recognizing the excellent work of these probation officers in providing superb customer service to our Union Vicinage clients. We are very proud of them."

Union Vicinage Chief Probation Officer, Raymond U. Reynolds, said, "I'm also proud of these probation officers, and I'm glad that their contributions to probation and the community are acknowledged and appreciated."
