Monmouth Vicinage to Participate in Public Seminar on Criminal Justice Reform

What: Monmouth Vicinage, in cooperation with the Office of the Monmouth County Prosecutor and the Monmouth County Office of the Public Defender, will hold two public seminars to discuss the scope, nature and impact of criminal justice reform. The reform, which goes into effect Jan. 1, 2017, represents a historic shift from a justice system in which pre-trial detention decisions relied principally on monetary bail to an objective, risk-based system that includes timelines for speedy trials.

When: Monday, Oct. 17, 6 p.m.
Tuesday, Oct. 25, 10 a.m.

Where: Monmouth County Library Headquarters, 125 Symmes Drive, Manalapan.

The seminars are free and open to the public. For further information, contact Theresa Romano at 732-677-4209 or email monmouthhelp.mailbox@njcourts.gov.
