Morris/Sussex Vicinage to Hold Expungement Seminar

The Morris/Sussex Vicinage will host an expungement seminar on Tuesday, Feb. 28 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in Room 555 of the Morris County Administration and Records Building, 10 Court St., Morristown.

Topics will include how to file for an expungement, the types of records eligible for an expungement, time requirements and what happens after an expungement is granted.

The seminar is sponsored by the vicinage's Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns and its criminal division, along with the Morris County Bar Association, Legal Services of Northwest Jersey and Legal Services of New Jersey.

Court staff will be available to answer procedural questions and will have expungement form packets available. This seminar is free and open to the public. Registration is not required.

This is an informational seminar only. Individual cases will not be discussed.

If you require interpreting services or have any questions regarding participation, contact the Office of the Ombudsman and Court User Resource Center at 973-656-4015 or MRS-SSXHelp@mail.box@njcourts.gov .
