Hudson Vicinage Celebrates Women's History Month

In celebration of Women's History Month, the Hudson Vicinage will host a presentation by Vivian Brady-Phillips, interim executive director of the Jersey City Housing Authority, on Tuesday, March 27 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in courtroom 908 of the Administration Building, 595 Newark Ave., Jersey City.

This event, sponsored by the vicinage's Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Advisory Committee, is free and open to the public.

Assignment Judge Peter F. Bariso Jr. will deliver opening remarks. Brady-Phillips' presentation will focus on this year's National Women's History Month theme, "Nevertheless She Persisted: Honoring Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women." Kimberly C. Cicala, chair of the vicinage's EEO/AA Advisory Committee, will give closing comments.

Before her role at the housing authority, Brady-Phillips served as deputy mayor of Jersey City. She continues to serve as vice chairwoman of the Jersey City Economic Development Corporation. She also has served as executive vice president for external and legal affairs at NYC Leadership Academy in Queens and as an attorney at several prominent New York City law firms. She received her law degree from New York University School of Law, where she was a Root-Tilden-Snow Public Interest Scholar.
