Camden Vicinage Hosts Court Night

The Camden Vicinage, in conjunction with the Camden County Surrogate's Office, will host Court Night on Wednesday, July 18 from 6 to 8 p.m. at 6 Executive Campus, 1112 Union Ave., Cherry Hill.

Court representatives and other experts on the subjects to be covered will conduct free half-hour workshops in the following areas:

- Criminal Justice Reform and pretrial detention
- Juvenile Detention Alternative Initiative and the juvenile system
- Expungement
- Child support and the connection between the probation and family divisions

The workshops will provide practical information and material promoting a greater understanding of the court's functions. Presenters also will be available to answer general questions. Individual cases will not be discussed or resolved.

Court Night is free and open to the public. Registration will begin at 5:30 p.m. Pre-registration is encouraged, but not required.

To reserve a seat, contact the ombudsman's office at 856-379-2397 or email CamdenHelp@njcourts.gov.
