Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage to Host Expungement and Criminal Justice Reform Information Session

The Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage and Woodbury Public Library will host an expungement and Criminal Justice Reform information session on Thursday, March 21 from 6 to 7:45 p.m. at the library, 33 Delaware St., Woodbury.

Presenters will provide an overview of the Judiciary's Criminal Justice Reform initiatives and information on the process and requirements for filing for an expungement. Topics will include an overview of the expungement process, what is eligible to be expunged, what information is required in order to file, who must be served and where forms and additional information are available. There also will also be a question-and-answer session.

Vicinage EEO/AA Officer Elena R. Flynn and Ombudsman Vanessa Cardwell will address the audience.

The seminar is free and open to the public. No registration is required. This is an informational seminar. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved at this time.

Requests for interpreting services, ADA accommodations, and questions about facility logistics can be directed to 856-878-5050, ext. 15159.
