Middlesex Vicinage to Celebrate Women's History Month

The Middlesex Vicinage will celebrate Women's History Month on Wednesday, April 3 at 12:30 p.m. in courtroom 308 in the Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Paterson St., New Brunswick.

Rachel Devlin, associate professor of history at Rutgers University, will speak. Dr. Devlin, whose work focuses on modern U.S. women's and gender history, is the author of A Girl Stands at the Door: The Generation of Young Women who Desegregated America's Schools (2018), which tells the story of the disproportionate number of girls who filed lawsuits prior to Brown v. Board of Education and who helped desegregate historically white schools in the early 1960s.

This event is open to the public. Registration is not required.

The event is sponsored by the vicinage's EEO/AA Advisory and Heritage Event committees.
