Morris/Sussex Vicinage to Hold Sixth Annual Military Appreciation Ceremony

The Morris/Sussex Vicinage will recognize employees who have served in the U.S. military at a ceremony on Friday, May 17 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. at the Morris County Administration and Records Building, Freeholder Meeting Room, fifth floor, 10 Court St., Morristown.

Operations Division Manager Kerri Lynn Walsh-Wood and Morris County Veterans Services Officer Ken Brenzel will recognize vicinage judges and employees for their military service.

U.S. Army Capt. John Bilby, law clerk for Assignment Judge Stuart A. Minkowitz, will be the featured speaker. The program will acknowledge late Superior Court Judge Edward V. Gannon for his service to the U.S. armed forces and the New Jersey Judiciary.

Judge Gannon's widow Maryellen Gannon, son Rory Gannon, and brothers Morris County Sheriff James M. Gannon and Kevin Gannon will accept a plaque in his memory. Presiding Family Judge James M. DeMarzo will give closing remarks.

The U.S. Army National Honor Guard will present the colors. Music will be provided by Keith Wood and Jeff Barry, bagpipers from Morris County-based Rory O'Moore School of Pipes and Drums. Superior Court Judge Michael Paul Wright will sing "God Bless America" to close the program.

The ceremony is open to the public and reservations are not required.

For additional information, contact Operations Division Manager KerriLynn Walsh-Wood at 973-656-3509.
