Atlantic/Cape May Vicinage to Sponsor Job Fair for Probation and Recovery Court Participants

The Atlantic/Cape May Vicinage will hold a job fair for probation clients and recovery court participants on Friday, July 16 from 9 a.m. to noon at the Atlantic County Criminal Courts Complex, 4997 Unami Blvd., Mays Landing.

The courts have partnered with local employers and social service agencies to connect clients and participants with open positions and employment resources in Atlantic and Cape May counties.

“This is an excellent opportunity for our participants and probationers to gain skills and meaningful employment in some of our area’s largest industries. We are fortunate to have many employers on board to assist our applicants in fulfilling an especially important need on their part: keeping their businesses staffed. We approach this job fair in an especially fertile market for employees and are thankful that our vendors are taking the leap of faith to help those who are in need of a second chance. We’re also fortunate to have a number of local agencies there to assist with the pre- and post-employment process,” Recovery Court Judge Jeffrey Waldman said.

Job fair attendees will have an opportunity to speak with prospective employers and gather employment information directly from representatives in the casino and healthcare industries. Social service agency partners will be on-site to provide pre-employment assistance, including application and resume preparation and interview coaching.
