Middlesex Vicinage to Hold Elder Law Webinar

The Middlesex Vicinage will host an elder law webinar, “Planning for the Unexpected,” on Tuesday, Nov. 16 from 5 to 6 p.m.

Vicinage staff and representatives from the Middlesex County Bar Association and the Middlesex County Office of Aging and Disabled Services will discuss power of attorney matters and available services.

Topics will include:

- Last will and testament
- General durable power of attorney
- Advance directive for healthcare
- Nursing home care
- Guardianship

Participants can submit questions during the webinar via the “Q&A” option.

This is an informational webinar only. Individual cases will not be discussed or resolved.

This webinar is free and open to the public. Register for the event here.

To request additional information, an ADA accommodation or interpreter, contact the vicinage’s Office of the Ombudsman at MiddlesexHelp.Mailbox@njcourts.gov or 732-645-4300, ext. 88748.
