Morris/Sussex Vicinage Announces Winners of Mock Trial Finals

Morristown – West Morris Mendham High School has won the final round of the Morris County mock trial competition, beating Kennelon High School to retain the county title.

The final round of the annual competition, part of the Vincent J. Apruzzese High School Mock Trial Competition sponsored by the New Jersey State Bar Foundation, was held on Feb. 3. Assignment Judge B. Theodore Bozonelis and Superior Court Judge David B. Rand presided over the final round.

In Sussex County, High Point Regional High School won the county competition, successfully arguing the case against Vernon High School. The Sussex County finals also were held on Feb. 3. Superior Court Judges Edward V. Gannon and William J. McGovern presided over the competition, held at the historic courthouse.

The county bar associations in all 21 counties sponsor the mock trial competitions. County winners progress to the regional competitions. Regional winners will compete in the state finals to be held in New Brunswick on March 24.
