Our court staff can give procedural guidance, but they cannot give legal advice.

Middlesex Vicinage staff will present a seminar to assist self-represented litigants who are filing an application for divorce.

Court staff will provide information on current laws and procedures for filing a divorce.

Staff review the application form, explain what happens after a divorce has been granted, and answer questions about the application and court processes.

Due to limited seating, registration is required by Wednesday, Jan. 24. This seminar is free and open to the public. This event is sponsored by the Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex Vicinage.
