

Attorneys Home

Opinions

Notices

eCourts

Attorney Registration

Rules of Court

Multicounty Litigation - Frequently Asked Questions

What is a multicounty litigation?

How does multicounty litigation become a multicounty litigation - the steps to designate a multicounty litigation?

What kind of multicounty litigation cases are currently managed in New Jersey?

There are 19 multicounty litigations in New Jersey. Those include Accutane, Asbestos, ABG Stryker, Benicar, Bristol-Meyers-Squib, Fosamax, Levaquin, Mirena, Risperdal/Seroquel/Zyprexa, Talc-Powder, YAZ/Yasmin/Ocella, Pelvic Mesh, Reglan, Stryker Implant ,Pompton Lakes, DePuy ASR Hip Implant, AlloDerm, Propecia and Stryker LFIT.

Where are multicounty litigation cases managed?

The New Jersey Superior Court Trial Level is divided into three parts: Criminal, Family, and Civil. Within the Civil Division there are sections such as the Special Civil Part section (small claims, landlord tenant). Multicounty Litigations for the state of New Jersey are currently being managed in the Civil Division Part in Middlesex County, New Brunswick, NJ, the Civil Division Part in Atlantic County, Atlantic City, NJ, and the Civil Division Part in Bergen County, Hackensack, NJ.

Where is the Clerk's office for multicounty litigation cases?

What information is available on this web site?

Can I retrieve pleadings, briefs, and discovery from this web site?

Does a Short Form need to be filed?

Are there fees attached to filing?

What is the case flow for a typical Multicounty Litigation?

Should attorneys get an account with the State to file documents?

Mission Statement

We are an independent branch of government constitutionally entrusted with the fair and just resolution of disputes in order to preserve the rule of law and to protect the rights and liberties guaranteed by the Constitution and laws of the United States and this State.

Essential Links

- » Home
- » Accessibility
- » Fair Treatment
- » Interpreting Services
- » eCATS
- » For Judges
- » P-Synch Reset
- » Citrix
- » Contact Us
- » Quick Links
- » Privacy Policy

Copyright © 2018 All Rights Reserved by New Jersey Judiciary.

