

Criminal C Out of Time Appeal for Indigent Defendants, Notice to Appellate Bar, 100 NJLJ 1208 (1977)

Issued by: Stephen W. Townsend, Clerk
Supreme Court

The Supreme Court has directed the Appellate Division to relax Rule 2:4-4(a) in favor of allowing an out-of-time appeal nunc pro tunc on behalf of an indigent criminal defendant in any case where it satisfactorily appears that the defendant, personally, within time, requested trial counsel or the Public Defender's Office to file an appeal.

EDITOR'S NOTE

The text is taken unchanged from a Notice to the Appellate Bar which appeared in the New Jersey Law Journal, 100 N.J.L.J. 1208 (1977).