Directive # 10-10

TO: Assignment Judges
Family Presiding Judges

FROM: Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.

SUBJ: Family -- Mandated Questions for Certain Sexual Offenses for Use with Juvenile Plea Agreements (CN 11425)

DATE: October 15, 2010

This Directive promulgates for immediate statewide use a new form entitled "Mandated Questions for Certain Sexual Offenses" (CN 11425), to be appended to a plea agreement when a juvenile pleads guilty to sexual offenses enumerated in Megan's Law, N.J.S.A. 2C:7-1 to -23. The form was approved by the Judicial Council for mandatory use. The questions cover the following areas:

- Registration Requirement
- Change of Address
- Address Verification
- Community Notification
- Internet Posting
- Use of Internet
- Eligibility to Terminate Registration
- AIDS/HIV Testing
- Civil Commitment

Pursuant to R. 5:21A, the court must determine that a factual basis exists for the plea, that the juvenile enters into the plea voluntarily and that the juvenile understands the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea. The questions in Form CN 11425 ensure that the juvenile who pleads guilty to those sex offenses is informed regarding the plea's possible significant lifelong consequences.

Rule 5:21A also provides that "[b]efore accepting a plea of guilty, the court may require a juvenile to complete, insofar as applicable, and sign the appropriate plea form prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts." When the court uses a form to enter a plea, it must use the approved juvenile plea form (CN 11144). The questions set forth in CN 11425 replace those sex offense questions on the current juvenile plea form. The current juvenile plea form will be revised in due course, but the importance of asking these sex offense questions requires the immediate promulgation of the supplemental plea form. CN 11425 must be used as a mandatory addendum to the current juvenile plea form (CN 11144) when pleading guilty to the enumerated sex offenses.

A juvenile's defense attorney is responsible for reviewing a plea agreement with his or her client to ensure the juvenile understands all aspects of pleading guilty to an offense. The defense attorney also is responsible for executing and submitting the plea agreement to the court. The defense attorney's review is especially important when pleading guilty to the sexual offenses because of the complex requirements set forth in Megan's Law. When accepting the plea, the judge should ask the juvenile's attorney on the record whether he or she reviewed the plea agreement, including the sex offense questions, with the juvenile and answered all of the juvenile's questions.

A Spanish translation version of the questions will be promulgated upon completion. Any questions or comments regarding this Directive should be directed to Assistant Director Harry T. Cassidy at (609) 984-4228.
