Subj: Criminal – Judgment of Conviction – Amendments to JOC Form to Incorporate Certain Statutory Penalties

Date: June 8, 2012

Directive # 04-12
(Supplements and Modifies
Directive #14-08)

The current Judgment of Conviction (JOC) form was one of a number of forms promulgated by Directive #14-08 (the JOC was Attachment 12 to that directive). This Directive amends the judgment of conviction (JOC) form so as to incorporate certain statutory penalties, with the attached revised JOC thus superseding and replacing the JOC appended to Directive #14-08 effective July 10, 2012. The delay in implementation until July 10 is necessary in order to complete the programming and testing of the revised automated form. This Directive therefore prospectively supplements and modifies Directive #14-08.

The Supreme Court previously delegated the authority and responsibility to approve the form of the JOC to the Administrative Director. My approval of these amendments was on the recommendation of the Criminal Practice Committee.

Certain statutory penalties are imposed only when a defendant is convicted of the relevant specific offenses. In order to be able to accurately reflect such offense-based penalties, page 2 of the JOC has been revised to add a new box entitled “Offense-Based Penalties.” When the JOC is generated, the “Offense-Based Penalties” box will display the penalty name, statute number and the amount of the penalty imposed pursuant to any of the following statutes: Drug Abuse Education Fund, N.J.S.A. 2C:43-3.5; Computer Crime Prevention Fund Penalty, N.J.S.A. 2C:43-3.8; Insurance Fraud Surcharge, N.J.S.A. 17:33A-5.1; Anti-Money Laundering Profiteering Penalty, N.J.S.A. 2C:21-27.1 and -27.2; Public Corruption Profiteering Penalty, N.J.S.A. 2C:30-8; and Anti-Drug Profiteering Penalty, N.J.S.A. 2C:35A-3 and -4. Whenever a new offense-based statutory penalty is enacted, the JOC will be updated so that the new statutory penalty can be displayed in the "Offense-Based Penalties" box.

If a judge imposes more than one offense-based penalty against a defendant, the first such penalty will display on page 2 of the JOC in the "Offense Based Penalties" box. Any additional offense-based penalties that are imposed will display on an overflow page of the JOC. Additionally, the total amount of offense-based penalties that are imposed, as set forth in both the "Offense Based Penalties" box and the overflow page, will be calculated in the "Total Financial Obligation" on page 2 of the JOC.

Any questions or comments regarding this Directive or the appended form, should be directed to Assistant Director Joseph J. Barraco, at (609) 292-4638.
