Re: IN RE ROBERTO A. RIVERA-SOTO, A JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT
Docket No. ACJC-2007-097

Dear Committee Members:

I deeply regret that my actions in defense of my son have raised questions about my integrity, and have created the potential to undermine the public's trust and confidence in the Court.

My actions -- including my requests that the matter be handled in the ordinary course and how I could be contacted during regular business hours -- were intended to belie any possible allegations of preferential treatment. In hindsight, I realize that some of these actions have had the effect of creating the appearance of impropriety. Although I took those actions with innocent intent, I underestimated the capacity that my position has to influence others. That potential to influence, even if unintended, counsels that I should have refrained from any actions that might raise an appearance of impropriety.

Please let me assure you that at no time did I intend to use my office to influence anyone; those who know me well will attest that I would never use my position for any personal gain or advantage. In this instance, I was not, and never was, interested in revenge or retribution. I simply and repeatedly sought a straightforward goal: that my son be left alone. Consonant with that goal, I agreed to resolve the matter as I did -- with an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal if no further incidents occurred prior to the other student's June 2007 high school graduation.

For my actions, and the effect they may have had, I am profoundly sorry. As a result, and based on my desire to prevent any further harm to the Court's reputation, I wish to waive a formal hearing, and I am willing to submit the matter to the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Roberto A. Rivera-Soto
