Who Should Use This Packet?

You can use this packet if you are being sued in the Special Civil Part for an amount of money up to $20,000 and you wish to file a counterclaim, cross-claim, and/or a third-party complaint to join other parties to this lawsuit (definitions of these terms appear on page 12). If you do not file an Answer within the time specified in the Summons, which accompanies the Complaint, a money judgment may be entered against you.

Note: If you are NOT filing a counterclaim against the plaintiff or a claim against any other person, you should use packet 10542 - How to Answer a Complaint in the Special Civil Part.

General Requirements:

- 1. You must send an ANSWER to the court within 35 days from the date the Summons was sent to you. That date is shown on the summons you received. Your Answer must be accompanied by either the appropriate filing fee, or if you cannot afford the filing fee, a fee waiver request. To file a fee waiver use packet 11208 How to File for a Fee Waiver All Courts, found on our Self Help Center at nicourts.gov. (This form must be sent at the same time you file your Answer.)
 - a. The filing fee for an Answer with a Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint alleging damages for $5,000 or less is $50.00 and an additional $5.00 for each additional third-party defendant.
 - b. The filing fee for an Answer with a Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint alleging damages for more than $5,000 is $75.00 and an additional $5.00 for each additional third-party defendant.
 - c. If your Answer includes a Third-Party Complaint, you have to pay an additional $10.00 service fee for each additional third-party defendant (each new defendant you are adding).
- 2. If you have evidence showing that you do not owe the amount claimed, such as receipts, keep the original documents and bring them to the trial.

- You must send a copy of the Answer to the plaintiff by certified and regular mail if the plaintiff does not have a lawyer. If the plaintiff has a lawyer, you must send a copy of the Answer to that lawyer by regular mail.
- 4. Each person being sued must file their own Answer.

An Answer on behalf of a CORPORATION, LIMITED LIABILITY CORPORATION or LIMITED PARTNER in a limited partnership must be filed by an attorney if the amount sought in the case is more than $5,000.

Note: These materials have been prepared by the New Jersey Administrative Office of the Courts for use by self-represented litigants. The guides, instructions, and forms will be periodically updated as necessary to reflect current New Jersey statutes and court rules. The most recent version of the forms will be available at the county courthouse or on the Judiciary's Internet site njcourts.gov. However, you are ultimately responsible for the content of your court papers.

Completed forms are to be submitted to the Special Civil Part of the Superior Court in the county where you are filing your case. A list of Special Civil Part Offices is provided at the customer counter or at njcourts.gov.

Steps for Filing Your Answer Containing a Counterclaim, Cross-claim or Third-Party Complaint in the Special Civil Part

STEP 1: Fill out the Answer with Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint form (Form A)

Fill out the Answer with Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint, which is your written response to the Complaint, explaining to the Court why you think you do not owe the money that the person suing you is asking for and why someone else is responsible. Detailed instructions on how to fill out the Answer can be found on page 9.

STEP 2: Pay the filing fee

A check or money order for the correct filing fee, which can be found on page 1, must be made payable to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey, or if filing electronically through the Judiciary Electronic Document System (JEDS), you may use a credit card. If you cannot afford the filing fee, attach the fee waiver (CN 11208 found on njcourts.gov).

STEP 3: Where to file the Answer with Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint

You must file your Answer with the Office of the Special Civil Part in the county where the case was filed against you. Look at the Summons you received from the court for this address.

STEP 4: Check your completed form

Check your form and make sure it is complete. Remove all instruction sheets. Make sure you have signed the form and have included your name, address and telephone number.

CHECKLI	ST -: You must have all of the following items in this order:
	Answer with Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint (Form A) Filing fee in the form of a check, money order, electronic credit card payment, or fee waiver request. Do not mail cash. You may use cash if you pay in person but you should keep the receipt you get from the court staff for your records.

STEP 5: Mail or deliver your package of completed papers to the court, the plaintiff and any co-defendants or third party defendants

File your Answer electronically through JEDS, by mail, or in person. If you mail the Answer to the court, we recommend that you use certified mail, return receipt requested. This will provide you with a green receipt card that can serve as proof that you mailed the Answer to the court. Your post office can tell you how to send certified mail, return receipt requested.

You must also mail a copy to each party's attorney by regular mail or to each party by certified and regular mail if that party does not have an attorney. If the lawsuit names another person (in addition to yourself) as a defendant, you must also send that person a copy of your Answer.

If your Answer contains a Third-Party Complaint, you must complete the DC Summons (Appendix XI-A (1)) form. That form is available on our website at njcourts.gov. Copies of the Summons, your Answer and Third-Party Complaint will be sent to the newly added parties by the Court.

- Make enough copies of the Answer so that you will have one for yourself and one for the other parties' attorneys. If the other parties do not have an attorney, then make enough copies so that you have one copy for each party in the case.
- Mail or deliver the original Answer to the court.
- Mail or deliver one copy to each of the other parties' attorneys or to each of the other parties if he or she does not have an attorney.

STEP 6: You will get a court date for your trial

After you file your Answer with the court, you will receive a notice in the mail with the date you must appear in court. The plaintiff will also be notified to appear in court on the same date. You must appear in court on this date; if you do not the court may find you in default and judgment may be entered against you and you may lose the case.

If you cannot make your court date because of circumstances beyond your control, you must contact the plaintiff (and other parties) to ask for their consent to reschedule the matter. Once you have contacted the plaintiff, you can contact the court to advise the Court of the plaintiff's response and request that your date be rescheduled. If the plaintiff does not appear, the case may be dismissed.

Other Considerations

Interrogatories

If you receive a list of questions (interrogatories) from the plaintiff, you must answer and return them to the plaintiff within 30 days. If you do not do so, the court may rule against you by suppressing (dismissing) your answer. You would then have to file a written motion, advising the court that you answered the questions and ask the court to reinstate the case and to reaccept your answer. The restoration fee is $25 if you make the motion within 30 days of the suppression order; after 30 days, the restoration fee is $75. After 45 days, the court may make the suppression order final and then enter a default judgment against you without hearing your side of the case.

The defendant can also send a list of interrogatories to the plaintiff. The plaintiff's complaint could get dismissed if they don't answer the interrogatory questions within 30 days as well. For sample interrogatories see CN 11895 - Model Interrogatories in Special Civil Part Contract and Debt Collection Cases in Which the Demand Exceeds $5,000 on njcourts.gov.

Settlement Negotiations

The court will likely ask that you attempt to settle your case with the help of a mediator on the day of trial before the trial begins. You may also wish to contact the plaintiff's lawyer, or the plaintiff, if the plaintiff does not have a lawyer, to resolve this dispute on your own prior to your trial date. You do not have to do this unless you want to. However, negotiating with the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney will not stop the 35-day period for filing an Answer, unless a written agreement between you and the plaintiff is reached and filed with the court before the 35-day period ends.

The Judiciary will provide reasonable accommodations to enable individuals with disabilities to access and participate in court events. Please contact the local ADA coordinator to request an accommodation. Contact information is available at nicourts.gov.

The New Jersey Judiciary provides court-interpreting services. If you need an interpreter, notify the court as soon as possible. Contact information is available at njcourts.gov.

Instructions for Completing Special Civil Answer with a Counterclaim, Crossclaim and/or Third-Party Complaint (Form A)

- A. The defendant is you, the person who is being sued, and the plaintiff is the person who is suing you.
- B. At the top left of the form under the section labeled Filing Attorney Information or Pro Se Litigant, enter your name, address, daytime phone number and email address. If you are not an attorney, leave the NJ Attorney ID field blank.
- C. In the section for plaintiff's information, enter the plaintiff's name, address and daytime phone number. Make sure to check the box if the plaintiff's address and/or phone number have changed since the initial filing.
- D. In the section for defendant's information, enter the name(s), current address(es) and daytime phone number(s) of the defendant(s) listed on the complaint.
- E. On the right side of the form, enter the County and Docket No. assigned to the case by the court. (You can get this information from the complaint filed against you.)
- F. Select the appropriate box(es) to indicate if you are filing a Counterclaim, Cross-claim and/or Third-Party Complaint (select all that apply).
- G. In the section below Defendant denies owing the debt to the Plaintiff, check the appropriate statement(s) which set forth why you claim you do not owe the money to the plaintiff (select all that apply); or choose the box marked "Other" and explain your position.
- H. On page 2, check the appropriate box(es) and provide a statement of facts as to why the plaintiff(s) and/or named defendant(s) and/or third party defendant(s) are at fault.
 - In the Defendant's Demand section (if applicable), provide the demand amount (how much you think they owe you) and the address of the third party defendant(s).
- I. Indicate if you want a trial by jury. If so, select the appropriate statement trial by jury requested or trial by jury requested and I have submitted an application for a fee waiver.
 - Enclose either a check or money order for the correct amount (jury fee, Answer fee, service fee see page 1) made payable to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey or your completed application for a fee waiver. (To file a fee waiver use packet 11208 How to File for a Fee Waiver All Courts, found on our Self Help Center at njcourts.gov).
- J. In the Certification area, check the applicable box in each section, advising the court of any other pending actions involving the same parties. Provide information about those other claims or lawsuits (if any) and advise the court if any other parties should be joined to this lawsuit.
- K. IMPORTANT: Carefully review the Certifications made and double check that you have complied with the Certifications before moving to the next step. This means that you must make sure that you do not need to bring anyone else into the case or that you advise the Court if another party should be brought into the case. A frequent example is when a hospital sues a patient for payment of a bill, but the patient believes that the insurance company should pay the bill instead. The insurance company needs to be brought into the case.

L. If the Answer (Form A) or any of the copies of papers that you attach to the Answer contain a Social Security number, driver's license number, vehicle plate number, insurance policy number, active financial account number, or active credit card number or information as to an individual's military status, you must redact (black out) this information so that it cannot be seen, unless any such personal identifier is required to be included by statute, rule, administrative directive or court order. If an active financial account is the subject of your case and cannot otherwise be identified, you may use the last four digits of the account to identify it. Once you have confirmed that none of these personal identifiers are on the papers that you are filing, you must sign and date the Certification that indicates "I certify that personal identifiers have been redacted from documents now submitted to the court and will be redacted from all documents submitted in the future in accordance with Rule 1:38-7(b)."

NOTE: Do not redact (black out) this information in the original papers that you are keeping since you may have to show them to the court at some point.

- M. On the line above Dated, clearly print or type the date on which you sign this form, sign your name on the line above Defendant's Signature and clearly print or type your name on the line below your signature.
- N. If you would like a copy of the documents or papers referred to in the Complaint, check the Demand for Production of Documents box located at the bottom of the form.

Review all steps for completion before mailing your forms.

Things to Think About Before You Represent Yourself in Court

Try to Get a Lawyer

The court system can be confusing, and it is a good idea to get a lawyer if you can. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may contact the legal services program in your county to see if you qualify for free legal services. Their telephone number can be found online under "Legal Aid" or "Legal Services."

If you do not qualify for free legal services and need help in locating an attorney, you can contact the bar association in your county. Most county bar associations have a Lawyer Referral Service. The Lawyer Referral Service can supply you with the names of attorneys in your area willing to handle your particular type of case and sometimes consult with you at a reduced fee.

There are also organizations of minority lawyers throughout New Jersey, as well as organizations of lawyers who handle specialized types of cases. Ask your county court staff for a list of Lawyer Referral Services that include these organizations.

What You Should Expect If You Represent Yourself

While you have the right to represent yourself in court, you should not expect any special treatment, help, or attention from the court. You must still comply with the Rules of the Court, even if you are not familiar with them. The following is a list of some things the court staff can and cannot do for you. Please read it carefully before asking the court staff for help.

- We can explain and answer questions about how the court works.
- We can tell you what the requirements are to have your case considered by the court.
- We can give you some information from your case file.
- We can provide you with samples of court forms that are available.
- We can provide you with guidance on how to fill out forms.
- We can usually answer questions about court deadlines.
- We cannot give you legal advice. Only your lawyer can give you legal advice.
- We cannot tell you whether or not you should bring your case to court.
- We cannot give you an opinion about what will happen if you bring your case to court.
- We cannot recommend a lawyer, but we can provide you with the telephone number of a local lawyer referral service.
- We cannot talk to the judge for you about what will happen in your case.
- We cannot let you talk to the judge outside of court.
- We cannot change an order issued by a judge.

Keep Copies of All Papers

If you do not hire an attorney but represent yourself, be sure to make and keep for yourself copies of all completed forms and any canceled checks, money orders, sales receipts, bills, contract estimates, leases, photographs and other important documents that relate to your case.

Definitions of Words Used in This Packet

Answer - An answer is a written response of the defendant to the allegations contained in the Complaint, which explains why you think you do not owe the money to the other party in the case.

Co-Defendant - A co-defendant is another defendant who has been sued by the plaintiff in the Complaint.

Complaint - A complaint is a document in which the plaintiff briefly tells the court the plaintiff's account of the facts that entitle the plaintiff to the relief requested.

Counterclaim - A counterclaim is a document in which (you) the defendant briefly tells the court your account of the facts and explains why you think the plaintiff owes you money in the case.

Cross-claim - A cross-claim is a claim by one defendant that a co-defendant is responsible for plaintiff's damages.

Default - When the defendant fails to respond to the Complaint in the time specified in the Summons, the court automatically marks the defendant in default for having failed to file an Answer to the Complaint. Once a default has been entered, the judge may enter a money judgment in the plaintiff's favor. Likewise, if the plaintiff does not show up in court, the court may dismiss the case for plaintiff's failure to prosecute the case.

Defendant - The defendant is the person being sued.

File - To file means to give the appropriate forms and fee to the court to begin the court's consideration of your position or request.

Interrogatories – Interrogatories are a list of questions from the plaintiff and/or defendant asking for information about the case that require a written response from the party who was served.

Judgment – A judgment is the official decision of a court in a case.

Motion – A motion is a written request in which you ask the court to issue an order, or to change an order it has already issued.

Order – An order is a signed paper from the judge telling someone they must do something.

Party - A party is a person, business, or governmental agency named in a court action.

Plaintiff - The plaintiff is the person who files the lawsuit.

Return Date – The Return Date is the date the plaintiff and defendant are told to appear in court.

Service - Service is mailing copies of your papers to the lawyer for the other party or to the other party if there is no lawyer.

Summons - A summons is the paper that notifies the defendant that they are being sued and briefly explains the steps they need to take once they have received this notice.

Third-Party Complaint - A third-party complaint is a complaint filed against a third (new) party by a defendant alleging that the third party is liable for all or part of the claim that is in dispute.
