SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY
LAW DIVISION: ATLANTIC COUNTY

CASE NO: 300

CIVIL ACTION

CASE MANAGEMENT

FILED
NOV 20 2015
NELSON C. JOHNSON, J.R.C.

It appearing that all Talc-Based Powder Products cases are centralized for management in Atlantic County by Order of the Supreme Court of New Jersey, dated October 20, 2015.

And it further appearing that an equitable, economic and expedient resolution of these cases require an orderly management plan for this litigation; and therefore

IT IS ON THIS 20th day of November, 2015, ORDERED as follows:

I. GENERAL APPLICABILITY

1. Pursuant to the terms of the Supreme Court of New Jersey's Order of October 20, 2015, these centralized cases known as Talc-Based Powder Products shall be co-managed by The Honorable Julio Mendez, A.J.S.C. and The Honorable Nelson C. Johnson, J.S.C., Vicinage One, Atlantic County, New Jersey, with Judge Johnson overseeing the management of such cases, and handling all trial issues for such cases. All communications to the Court in this litigation shall be directed to Judge Johnson.
2. This Order applies to all cases previously filed and all those hereinafter filed or transferred to Atlantic County pursuant to the Supreme Court Order of October 20, 2015. The cases are centralized to avoid duplication and to prevent conflicts. Each case will retain its own docket number.
3. All orders by transferor Courts imposing dates for pleading or discovery are vacated.
4. Orders and notices common to the entire litigation are available on the Judiciary web page for Multicounty Litigation, which may be accessed at www.njcourtsonline.com.

II. CAPTIONS, PLEADINGS & SERVICE

1. All parties are to file individual complaints at the Atlantic County Courthouse, 1201 Bacharach Boulevard, Atlantic City, New Jersey 08401. The Case Information Statement accompanying the pleading shall identify the case code as 300.

2. Each complaint is limited to one plaintiff or a related household of plaintiffs. No plaintiff may use the caption "In re Talc-Based Powder Products" on an individual complaint. If a complaint has been filed with multiple unrelated plaintiffs, new individual complaints must be filed within thirty (30) days, and the court will, if requested, sign an Order preserving the original file date.
3. All pleadings, all motions papers, all correspondence shall add the title of "Talc-Based Powder Products Litigation", Case No 300.
4. Atlantic County shall maintain a master docket and case file caption "In re Talc-Based Powder Products Litigation". All Case Management Orders, Scheduling Orders and other documents filed therein are deemed filed and docketed in each individual case.

III. PRELIMINARY MATTERS

1. Each party shall preserve all documents and other records containing information potentially relevant to this litigation. Each party shall also preserve any physical evidence or potential evidence and shall not conduct any tests on physical evidence without notifying opposing counsel. Unless opposing counsel stipulate to the test, no test shall be conducted without obtaining the Court's permission.
2. Computerized data shall not be erased under existing programs until:
 - a) Opposing counsel have been, or will be, notified of all existing programs subject to additional meet and confer conferences.
3. The Court's Case Managements Orders #s 1, 2 and 3, together with the Protective Order of March 20, 2015, and the Production Orders of July 16, 2015, and August 7, 2015, all entered in the consolidated matter of Applewhite vs. Johnson & Johnson, et al. Docket No.: ATL-L-1995-14, are incorporated herein by reference and remain in full force and effect.

IV. ATTORNEYS

1. Counsel are expected to act in a civil manner during the conduct of this litigation. Each attorney should make a good faith effort to expeditiously resolve disputes out of Court. Counsel must attempt to resolve motions before any matter is submitted to the Court and must certify to such efforts.
2. Counsel for defendant(s) shall provide to the Court an official service list updated every 60 days. The list must contain the case names, docket numbers and the date. For each party, counsel must be identified by name, firm name, address, telephone number, fax number and e-mail address. From these lists, the Court will maintain on the Multicounty Litigation website an official counsel list for purposes of facilitating service.

3. Counsel lists are not to be appended to any Court submission. The counsel list shall be incorporated by reference on all certificates of service, all pleadings, all motions, all correspondence. The reference should be to all counsel on the list and identify by date the last official service list for the cases.
4. Multiple Counsel: Where a party is represented by more than one counsel of record, that party shall designate the name and address of the single counsel to be the recipient of all notices, communications and pleadings. The designated counsel will be responsible for notifying co-counsel of all such matters.
5. Pro hac Vice Admissions:
 - a) An attorney seeking to appear pro hac vice shall apply by formal notice of motion with supporting affidavit and proposed form of order, in compliance with R.1:21-2 of the Rules Governing the Courts of New Jersey.
 - b) Pro hac vice counsel may try the case but is not to be designated trial counsel. No proceedings shall be adjourned because pro hac vice counsel is not available.
 - c) All pleadings, motions and correspondence to the Court must be submitted by New Jersey counsel.
 - d) Out-of-state attorneys representing plaintiffs must certify that all retainer agreements with clients in the subject litigation do not, and in the future will not, violate any of the contingency fee provisions found in the Rules Governing the Courts of New Jersey for the current year.
 - e) All out-of-state attorneys seeking admission to represent a corporate defendant must certify as to his or her prior involvement with that corporation or its related entities, including the capacity in which he or she was involved. Further, the attorney must include in the affidavit a statement of his or her good faith belief that he or she was not involved with policy of management decisions which would require him or her to be called as a witness in any matter for the Court.
 - f) Counsel admitted pro hac vice shall be required to make annual payment to the Ethics Financial Committee and to the New Jersey Lawyers Fund for Client protection.

V. CONFERENCE PROCEDURES

1. The court will conduct, and the parties may request, periodic status and scheduling conferences to assess the progress regarding the matters scheduled herein. Reasonable notice of all such conferences will be provided to all counsel of record.

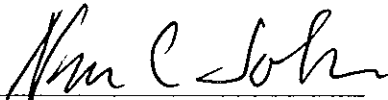

2. Transcripts: All case management conferences or parts thereof may be transcribed by an official Court reporter and a reporter provided by a party. Any party desiring a transcript may order one directly from the reporter. In any proceeding in which a transcript is ordered, counsel shall ensure that one copy of the transcript is also sent to the Court.
3. Appearances: Counsel appearing at each case management conference must sign an attendance sheet, be familiar with the issues to be discussed and not schedule other matters for the date of the conference.
4. Compliance: All counsel are required to comply with the provisions of each case management order whether or not he or she was in attendance at the conference giving rise to the Order.

VI. MOTIONS

1. Filing Requirements: All motions are to be filed with the Multicounty Litigation Team, Superior Court of New Jersey, Atlantic County Courthouse, 1201 Bacharach Boulevard, Atlantic City, New Jersey 08401. All motion papers must include a return date scheduled for a regular motion Friday. (Courtesy copies for the Judge are not required.)
2. Any motion that is applicable to all cases (or an identifiable subgroup) shall be filed in one omnibus motion using the master docket number assigned to the caption "In re Talc-Based Powder Products". In the event any motion, including pro hac vice motions, involves more than one individual case but not all cases, an omnibus motion and omnibus Order, shall be filed with a "Schedule A" attached listing the individual cases and docket numbers involved in the omnibus motion.
3. Any motion that is applicable to more than one party in a case shall be jointly filed by counsel.
4. Where the motion applies to more than one case, motion fees will be charged for each case, but if the motion is related to all cases filed under the master docket number, the court will charge for one motion.
5. Copies: Counsel shall file no more than one original copy of each Notice of Motion, supporting documents and proposed Order, with a self-addressed stamped envelope for the return of the signed Order. One additional copy of these papers may be supplied if a request is made for a return of that copy marked "filed", along with a self-addressed stamped envelope.
6. Captions: Captions on motions are the same as on pleadings and require the docket number and the designation "In re Talc-Based Powder Products".

7. Motions: Conference with the Court is required before any motion related to discovery issues is filed. No summary judgment motions shall be filed before discovery is complete, except as allowed by the Court. All motions in limine, motions for Frye/Daubert, Kemp/Rubanick or Lopez hearings shall be scheduled by the Court during pre-trial management conferences.
8. Oral Argument: No oral argument shall be heard for discovery motions unless granted by the Court in response to the request of a party.
9. On Wednesday, January 13, 2016, at 10:00 a.m., the court shall conduct an on-the-record, in-person case management conference with all counsel. At that time, the court will review the status of discovery.
