THIS MATTER having been brought by Barnes & Thornburg LLP, attorneys for Defendants Johnson & Johnson, Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc., Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Kenvue Inc., LLT Management LLC f/k/a LTL Management LLC, and Johnson & Johnson Services, Inc. (collectively, the “Johnson & Johnson Defendants”) respectfully move for the admission pro hac vice of Amy Pepke, of the law firm Kirkland & Ellis LLP located at 609 Main Street, Houston, Texas 77002, an attorney in good standing in the State bar of Texas and the State bar of Tennessee and is admitted in the following jurisdictions: the Supreme Court of the United States; the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit; the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit; the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit; the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit; the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois; the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan; the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee; the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee; the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan; the United States District Court for the Western District of Tennessee; the state of Texas; and the state of Tennessee. Amy Pepke is not under suspension or disbarment by any court. There are no disciplinary proceedings pending against her in any jurisdiction. The Johnson & Johnson Defendants have requested that she appear together with Ms. Brennan and other attorneys from Barnes & Thornburg LLP to represent them in this matter. The Johnson & Johnson Defendants respectfully move for the admission pro hac vice of Amy Pepke pursuant to an Order submitted under the 5-day Rule, and the Court having received no objections to the within Order and for good cause having been shown:

IT IS on this 3rd DAY OF February, 2026:

ORDERED that the application for the pro hac vice admission of Amy Pepke on behalf of the Johnson & Johnson Defendants is GRANTED, subject to the following conditions:

1. Amy Pepke shall abide by all rules and laws of the State of New Jersey, including disciplinary rules, Rules 1:20-1 and 1:28-2.
2. Amy Pepke shall and hereby does, consent to the appointment of the Clerk of the New Jersey Supreme Court as agent upon whom service of process may be made for all actions against her or her law firm that may arise out of her participation in this matter.

3. Amy Pepke shall contact the Court immediately about any matter that may affect her standing in any jurisdiction in which she is admitted.
4. Amy Pepke shall have all pleadings, briefs, and other papers filed with the court signed by an attorney of records authorized to practice in New Jersey, who shall be held responsible for them, the conduct of the litigation and the attorney admitted herein.
5. Amy Pepke cannot be designated as trial counsel pursuant to Rule 4:25-4.
6. Amy Pepke shall make an annual payment to the Ethics Financial Committee and to the New Jersey Lawyer's Fund for Client Protection and shall, within ten (10) days, pay the fee required by Rules 1:20-1(b), 1:28-2, and 1:28B-1(e) and submit an affidavit of compliance.
7. The pro hac vice admission of Amy Pepke will automatically terminate for failure to make the initial and any annual payments required by Rules 1:20-1(b), 1:28-2, and 1:28B-1(e).
8. Noncompliance with any of these requirements shall constitute grounds for removal.
9. A true copy of this Order shall be served upon all parties within seven (7) days.

Hon. John C. Porto
