Nathaniel E. Haas is not under suspension or disbarment by any court. There are no disciplinary proceedings pending against him in any jurisdiction. The Johnson & Johnson Defendants have requested that he appear together with Ms. Brennan and other attorneys from Barnes & Thornburg LLP to represent them in this matter. The Johnson & Johnson Defendants respectfully move for the admission pro hac vice of Nathaniel E. Haas pursuant to an Order submitted under the 5-day Rule, and the Court having received no objections to the within Order and for good cause having been shown:

IT IS on this 29th DAY OF October, 2025:

ORDERED that the application for the pro hac vice admission of Nathaniel E. Haas on behalf of the Johnson & Johnson Defendants is GRANTED, subject to the following conditions:

1. Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. shall abide by all rules and laws of the State of New Jersey, including disciplinary rules, Rules 1:20-1 and 1:28-2.
2. Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. shall and hereby does, consent to the appointment of the Clerk of the New Jersey Supreme Court as agent upon whom service of process may be made for all actions against him or his law firm that may arise out of his participation in this matter.
3. Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. shall contact the Court immediately about any matter that may affect his standing in any jurisdiction in which he is admitted.
4. Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. shall have all pleadings, briefs, and other papers filed with the court signed by an attorney of records authorized to practice in New Jersey, who shall be held responsible for them, the conduct of the litigation and the attorney admitted herein.
5. Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. cannot be designated as trial counsel pursuant to Rule 4:25-4.

6. Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. shall make an annual payment to the Ethics Financial Committee and to the New Jersey Lawyer's Fund for Client Protection and shall, within ten (10) days, pay the fee required by Rules 1:20-1(b), 1:28-2, and 1:28B-1(e) and submit an affidavit of compliance.

7. The pro hac vice admission of Nathaniel E. Haas, Esq. will automatically terminate for failure to make the initial and any annual payments required by Rules 1:20-1(b), 1:28-2, and 1:28B-1(e).

8. Noncompliance with any of these requirements shall constitute grounds for removal.

9. A true copy of this Order shall be served upon all parties within seven (7) days.

Hon. John C. Porto
