

NOTICE TO THE BAR

MULTICOUNTY LITIGATION – DESIGNATION OF STRATTICE® HERNIA MESH LITIGATION AS MCL

A previous Notice to the Bar requested comments on an application for multicounty litigation (MCL) designation of New Jersey state-court litigation alleging injuries due to use of Strattice® Hernia Mesh for hernia repair and/or body wall defects. This Notice is to advise that the Supreme Court, after considering the application and the comments received, has determined to designate cases involving allegations against Lifecell Corporation, Allergan, Inc. and Allergan USA, Inc., as multicounty litigation. The Court has assigned this MCL to Atlantic County for centralized case management by Superior Court Judge John C. Porto.

Published with this Notice is the Supreme Court's October 1, 2021 Order. This Order is posted in the Multicounty Litigation Center <https://www.njcourts.gov/attorneys/mcl/index/html> on the Judiciary's website (www.njcourts.gov). Judge Porto's Initial Case Management Order will also be posted in the Multicounty Litigation Center.

Acting Administrative Director of the Courts

Dated: October 12, 2021

SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

On application made pursuant to Rule 4:38A and the Multicounty Litigation Guidelines and Criteria for Designation (Revised) promulgated by Directive #02-19 in accordance with that Rule, it is hereby ORDERED that all pending and future New Jersey state court actions against Lifecell Corporation, Allergan, Inc., and Allergan, Inc. USA alleging injuries as a result of the use of Strattice® hernia mesh products be designated as multicounty litigation ("MCL") for centralized management purposes; and

It is FURTHER ORDERED that any and all such complaints that have been filed in the various counties and that are under or are awaiting case management and/or discovery shall be transferred from the county of venue to the Superior Court, Law Division, Atlantic County and that, pursuant to N.J. Const., Art.VI, sec.2, par.3, the provisions of Rule 4:3-2 governing venue in the Superior Court are supplemented and relaxed so that all future such complaints, no matter where they might be venued, shall be filed in Atlantic County; and

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Superior Court Judge John C. Porto shall oversee management and trial issues for such cases and may, in his discretion, return such cases to the original county of venue for disposition, and

It is FURTHER ORDERED that no Mediator or Master may be appointed in this litigation without the express prior approval of the Chief Justice.

For the Court,

Chief Justice
