In celebration of Black History Month, join the Monmouth Vicinage for a virtual presentation spotlighting the life and legacy of local figure and humanitarian Norma Todd. In 1983, Todd became the co-founder of Lunch Break in Red Bank, a non-profit she led as executive director for 25 years until her death in 2008.

Dr. Carol Penn, a physician and member of the Lunch Break Board of Trustees, will discuss her life-long friendship with the Todd family and the impact Todd had on her life and career from dancer to doctor. Gwendolyn Love, executive director of Lunch Break, will discuss Todd's legacy in Lunch Break and its ongoing service to the community.

Registration is not required. This free event is sponsored by the Superior Court of New Jersey, Monmouth Vicinage EEO/AA Advisory Committee and the Vicinage Advisory Committee on Diversity, Inclusion, and Community Engagement.
