

NOTICE TO THE BAR

SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

Re: Designation of Rezulin Litigation as a Mass Tort

Accompanying the publication of this Notice to the Bar is a copy of an Order dated April 6, 2000 signed by Chief Justice Deborah T. Poritz. The Order designates all pending and future litigation statewide involving the drug Rezulin as a mass tort and transfers the pretrial management of all such cases to Middlesex County to be handled on a coordinated basis by the Honorable Marina Corodemus with the assistance of Special Master Joyce M. Usiskin.

It is ORDERED that, in the matter of all pending and future litigation relating to the drug Rezulin, all complaints that have been filed in the various counties and that are under case management or in discovery or awaiting case management and discovery are transferred from the county of venue to the Honorable Marina Corodemus of the Superior Court, Law Division, Middlesex County (Vicinage No. 8), effective immediately; and all future complaints of this type, no matter where they might arise are to be filed in Middlesex County (Vicinage No. 8) and assigned to Judge Corodemus for management; and

It is FURTHER ORDERED that venue in all pending Rezulin litigation is transferred to Middlesex County (Vicinage No. 8); and

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Judge Corodemus, with the assistance of Joyce M. Usiskin, Esquire, Special Master, previously appointed with approval of the Chief Justice, oversee all pretrial case management and discovery for such cases and decide when such cases are ready for trial in a venue to be determined; and

It is FURTHER ORDERED that no Rezulin litigation shall be tried except on application to Judge Corodemus for good cause shown; and

It is FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to N.J. Const. (1947), Art. VI, sec. 2, par. 3, that Rule4:3-2 governing venue in the Superior Court is supplemented and relaxed so that all future complaints of this type, no matter where they might arise, are to be filed in Middlesex County (Vicinage No. 8).
