

SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

NOTICE TO THE BAR

Re: Proposal for Real Estate Law Certification

In Opinion 26 of the Committee on the Unauthorized Practice of Law, 136 N.J. 323 (1995), the Supreme Court invited its Board on Attorney Certification to study a Special Master's suggestion that attorney certification in residential real estate law might be appropriate.

An Ad Hoc Committee was created to review the issues and develop a proposal. The Committee first recommended a three-part certification in real estate: residential, commercial, and land-use regulation. In 1999, the Court declined to approve that proposal and asked the Board to submit a more limited version.

The Board has submitted a report that recommends the establishment of a Real Estate Law Certification. Proposed rules and regulations are included. The report is being published with this Notice. Anyone wishing to comment on the Board's proposals should file them at the following address:
