

NOTICE TO THE BAR

RE: APPLICATION TO DESIGNATE CIVIL LITIGATION INVOLVING THE ALLEGED ACTIONS OF FORMER NURSE CHARLES CULLEN AS A MASS TORT

The Supreme Court has considered the application, made pursuant to Rule 4:38A and the Mass Tort Guidelines, to designate all pending and future civil litigation statewide involving the alleged actions of former nurse Charles Cullen as a mass tort, as well as all comments received in response to the application, and has determined not to designate the litigation as a mass tort at this time. Pursuant to the attached Order, however, the Court has transferred all pending and future civil litigation involving the alleged actions of Charles Cullen to the Middlesex Vicinage for centralized management. Also accompanying this Notice is a copy of Judge Bryan Garruto's Case Management Order setting forth the details of the transfer.
