

NOTICE TO THE BAR

Report of the Supreme Court Special Committee on Electronic Filing – Publication for Comment

The Supreme Court Special Committee on Electronic Filing has submitted its report making a number of recommendations regarding the future use of electronic filing and electronic case management for the New Jersey Judiciary. The Supreme Court has directed that the committee report be published for comment. Accordingly, the report is available for downloading on the Judiciary's Internet website at <http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us/notices/efile.pdf>.

As with other reports published for comment, the Court's publication of the Special Committee's report for comment does not in any way indicate the subsequent outcome of the Court's consideration of the recommendations contained therein.

Those seeking to comment on the Special Committee's report or any of its recommendations must do so, in writing, by Monday, November 16, 2009, at the following address:

Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.
Acting Administrative Director of the Courts
Comments on E-Filing Committee Report
Hughes Justice Complex; P.O. Box 037
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0037

Comments on the report also may be submitted by e-mail to the following address: Comments.Mailbox@njcourts.gov.

The Supreme Court will not consider comments submitted anonymously. Those who seek to have the Court consider their comments must include both their name and address. Comments submitted in response to this Notice will be publicly available after the Court has acted on the report.

Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.
Acting Administrative
Director of the Courts
