

NOTICE TO THE BAR

REPORT OF THE ABA STANDING COMMITTEE ON PROFESSIONAL DISCIPLINE ON THE NJ LAWYER DISCIPLINE SYSTEM – UPDATE

The Supreme Court published the Report of the American Bar Association Standing Committee on Professional Discipline on the New Jersey Lawyer Discipline System (“ABA Report”) on August 3, 2011. The Court invited comments on the ABA Report and recommendations from the public and members of the bar. The Court received several comments and has considered the substance of those comments. While not taking any formal action on the ABA Report and recommendations at this time, the Court is requesting follow-up information from the Disciplinary Oversight Committee, the Office of Attorney Ethics, and the Disciplinary Review Board regarding several of those recommendations. The Court at a later date will issue additional notices regarding those several recommendations and any action taken thereon.
